EMMONS' PARTNER
REPLIED TO JONES*Brutal Suggestion of Divorce
Was Well Answered*INNOCENT LITTLE GIRL WAS AN EFFECTIVE BACKGROUND.*Sensational Exchange of Arguments
Aroused Keen Interest—Grove
Johnson Talks Today.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9.—Rowan Irwin, law partner of E. J. Emmons, administered a smarting rebuke to Attorney Charles T. Jones, who is assisting with the prosecution of Emmons, just before he concluded his argument before the jury this afternoon.

Irwin referred to the argument made by Jones last Saturday which, he said, was substantially that the defendant ought to be convicted so that his wife might get a divorce and he would be precluded from bringing more children into the world.

"I would like to know," Irwin said, "by what right or rights, Mr. Jones, entered the sacred precincts of the home of the defendant. I would like to know what he saw about this little girl (indicating Emmons' little daughter, who sat beside her father) that is so revolting. I would like to know why he should attack this innocent, whose worst crime has been to place her arms about the neck of her father and whom he has seen in her childish play about this courtroom. I would like to know what Mr. Jones sees about this little girl that induced him to advise the jury to convict her father in order that no more children like her should be brought into the world."

"That," continued Irwin, "was one of the strong points made by Mr. Jones, his strongest point, and I feel confident that if he rests his case upon that point that I know what the verdict of this jury will be."

While Irwin was delivering his rebuke the great crowd in the courtroom was as still as death. The women present glanced from the speaker to Jones and back again to Irwin, and when the strain was over they leaned back with a rustle as if waking after viewing a tragedy in dreams. The little girl who had been seated by her father, presumably as a background to the picture the lawyer proposed drawing, made a pretty picture and one all the more impressive because she absolutely knew nothing of what was going forward of the supreme effort of the lawyer to impress the jury with the idea that the attack made upon her father, through her, was wholly unwarranted.

Grove Johnson will begin his argument tomorrow morning.

COMMANDER YOUNG
COURT MARTIAL*INQUIRY INTO BENNINGTON MESS
WAS RESUMED.*Objection Made to One Member of Court on Ground of His Friendship For Accused.

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 9.—The trial of Commander Young, accused of neglect of duty in connection with the loss of the Bennington, was resumed today. An objection by the judge advocate to the retention of Commander Winder on the court martial, on account of his friendship for Commander Young, was overruled, as also was an objection to the presence of Naval Constructor Evans.

Lieutenant Victor Blue, executive officer of the Bennington from August 19, 1904, to the date of the explosion, was called as a witness. He did not remember accompanying the accused on his inspections. On three Sundays he had made inspections himself when Young was sick and the latter had requested him to do so. He was not in the boiler room at the time of an accident to one of the boilers on the way from Honolulu to San Diego, but he had heard there was such an accident as Commander Young told him of it.

Machinist Mate O. F. Nelson was recalled and said that a few minutes before the explosion, 132 pounds of pressure was registered on an auxiliary steam gauge in the after engine room. Machinist C. G. Wheeler testified that he set the valves on boilers C and B and afterwards reset the valves on boiler C.

Naval Constructor Evans then took the stand. The afternoon session was devoted to the introduction and inspection of boiler rivets, bolts and other material secured from the Bennington after the explosion. The material was in possession of Naval Constructor Evans and was admitted in evidence after considerable debate.

Died of Heart Failure.
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 9.—Robert C. Bradford, treasurer for Cudahy Bros. Packing company and for thirty years identified with the packing industry of Milwaukee, dropped dead as a result of heart failure while calling at the home of a friend at a late hour last night.

Oranges in the Market.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—A new feature in the fruit market today was the arrival of several shipments of early bloom navel oranges from Southern California. One lot of five boxes was held at $4 to $4.50 per box. These oranges were of fair size and good color.

LEGAL ARGUMENT IN PACKERS' CASES
BEFORE FEDERAL JUDGE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Arguments against the indictment of the packers charged with conspiracy to monopolize the meat trade of the country were begun today before Federal Judge J. Otis Humphrey. Attorney John S. Miller, counsel for the defendants, opened the arguments, using the demurrer filed last Friday as a basis.

When Attorney Miller completed his argument Special Assistant Attorney General Oliver E. Pugin made a short argument on the merits of the indictment, which he drew. He was followed by Attorney Rosenthal, for the packers, who argued until adjournment. Tomorrow morning Attorney Rosenthal will resume his argument and will be followed by District Attorney C. B. Morrison. It is believed tonight that all the argument will be completed tomorrow and the whole matter will be submitted to Judge Humphrey for a decision.

CINCINNATI MAN BOUGHT HALF INTEREST IN THE WASHINGTON POST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—John R. McLean, owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer, today purchased from the Wilkins estate an even half interest in the Washington Post company. The amount of the purchase money is not stated, but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $600,000. McLean will be president of the Post company and will take an active part in the management of the paper.

PEACE TREATY
ARRANGEMENTS*IT WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE UPON
ON APPROVAL.*Without Waiting for the Exchange of Ratifications at Washington to End War.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The treaty of peace between Russia and Japan will become effective upon its approval without awaiting the formal exchange of ratification at Washington. This information was imparted at the Japanese legation today. This course has been decided upon in order that the speediest possible termination of the war may be had.

The treaty, it is understood, has passed through the necessary preliminary stages of approval in each country and is now before the respective emperors of Japan and Russia for the royal signatures. As soon as it has been signed this fact will be communicated by cable to the state department at Washington and the Washington government will apprise each emperor of the act of the other. With this accomplished the war will be at an end.

The formal exchange of ratifications will be carried out in Washington as soon thereafter as the signed treaties reach here.

RECEIVER APPOINTED FOR PICTURE PROCEEDS IN NELSON'S INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—"Battling" Nelson won a victory over James Coffey, James E. Britt, the Moto-Photo company and Miles Brothers today when Judge Seawell granted him the appointment of a receiver for the moving picture exhibit of the fight at Colma. The receiver, however, will only take charge of the property in this state and will not interfere with the exhibit as it is given outside the state. Judge Seawell denied the application for an injunction holding that the pictures would decrease in value more from lying idle than from being exhibited. Marcus J. Kast of the Cosmos club was appointed receiver. He is to file a bond for $10,000.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 9.—One death and six new cases were reported here today for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. today.

YELLOW FEVER
IN NEW ORLEANS*ONLY ONE DEATH REPORTED YESTERDAY.*Backing Up of Water from the Lake
Has Flooded Part of the City.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Report to p. m. of the yellow fever situation: New cases ..... 9
Total to date ..... 3122
Deaths ..... 1
Total ..... 411
New foot ..... 6
Cases under treatment ..... 187
Cases discharged ..... 2614
Dr. C. M. Shanley, formerly of North Dakota, died today at his plantation home as the result of a relapse from yellow fever, his illness extending over the past two weeks.

After raining steadily for about thirty-six hours the weather cleared late today. Adverse winds and the heavy rain backed the water from the lake into the basin and also submerged a considerable portion of the rear section of the city. A stop was again put to the sanitary work.

In the list of cases now under treatment are two newspaper reporters.

WICHITA, Kans., Oct. 9.—Ex-Representative Jerry Simpson, who took a turn for the worse today, is resting some easier tonight.

NORWAY ACCEPTS
KARLSTAD TREATY*Referendum Proposal Beaten
By a Large Majority*BIG VICTORY SCORED BY THE GOVERNMENT.*Offer of Throne to Member of House of Bernadotte Has Been Withdrawn.

CHRISTIANA, Oct. 10.—After two days spent in excited discussion the storting at 1:30 o'clock this morning proceeded to a division on the proposal of the Karlstad agreement concerning the dissolution of the union between Norway and Sweden to a referendum. The proposal was rejected by a vote of 109 to 8.

The agreement was then accepted by a vote of 101 to 16.

This is a great victory for the government.

In the course of the debate Premier Michaelsen made an interesting speech on the question of the selection of a king. He said that the offer of the throne to a member of the house of Bernadotte was made as an expression of good will. It had apparently, however, been otherwise interpreted in Sweden, according to King Oscar's observations to foreign newspapermen, his majesty would regard his approval of such a selection as a personal sacrifice. In conclusion, the premier said the question now appeared to be outside actual politics.

Premier Michaelsen's statement is regarded as a withdrawal of Norway's offer of the throne to a member of the Bernadotte family.

WHITTIER AND LOWELL CHOSEN FOR ELECTORS FOR HALL OF FAME.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The names of John Greenleaf Whittier and James Russell Lowell have been chosen to be inscribed in the Hall of Fame of the New York university. Official announcement was made today that Whittier's name had been chosen by a vote of fifty-two out of ninety-five of the board of electors. Fifty-one votes, or a majority of the full board of electors of 100, is necessary for election.

Those names which failed of election, having received less than fifty-one votes, were:

Authors—Oliver Wendell Holmes and James Fenimore Cooper, 48 votes each; William Cullen Bryant, John L. Motley and Francis Parkman, 46 each; Edgar Allan Poe, 43; George Bancroft, 39; Horace Greeley, 34; Noah Webster, 32; William H. Prescott, 23; William Lloyd Garrison, 20.

Teachers—Mark Hopkins 38, Matthew Simpson 20.

BLUFFTON, Ind., Oct. 9.—Joseph S. Dailey, ex-judge of the Supreme court of Indiana, died here today of apoplexy, aged 69 years.

JOHN D. FEELS LIKE A SPONGE*HE HAS ABSORBED SO MANY BLESSINGS.*He Says People Should Be More Like Pumps—Giving Out What They Get.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 9.—In his closing talk to the Sunday school class of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church, which he is superintendent, John D. Rockefeller today made a comparison of the crops that grow in the field and the crops that may be cultivated by each person that will be of more benefit than those which grow in the ground. Rockefeller referred to personal virtues and in part he said:

"I don't know how many of you children have been in the country this year, but many of you have come to see me at my home and have made me happy."

About the Crops.
"I want to ask you what crops you have harvested this year. I won't find fault if you have not done very well, nor if you have done better. For we old ones do the same thing, for we struggle along again and resolve to do better. I want to suggest to you children that you foster the spirit that prompts us to speak a kindly word and extend the hand helpfully. Some of us have not had much education, but we can never graduate from colleges, but we can raise crops just the same. Let us cultivate the spirit of patience, let us cultivate that crop right here in our own city, in New York or wherever we may go. Another crop that we can cultivate is charity. Still another crop that we can raise is that good will toward others are ever so much better for ourselves and for others than are the material crops that grow out of the ground."

Feels Like a Sponge.
"I feel like a sponge," said I have absorbed so many blessings during my stay in this city, but I remind you that we should be like the pump which not only sucks up but also gives out. If you will cultivate the virtues that I have mentioned, you can make a heaven on earth for yourselves and for all those with whom you associate."

Today was Rockefeller's last day as superintendent of the Sunday school, of which he has had charge during the summer. He will return to New York City during this week.

Supreme Court Session.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Supreme court of the United States today convened for the term of 1905-1906 with all members present.

LYNCHING THREATS ARE MADE AGAINST AN ARRESTED BANKER

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 9.—Dispatches from Alamosa, Colo., tonight, say that Isaac Schiffer, one of the owners of the defunct bank of Alamosa, arrested on several counts charging embezzlement and receiving money knowing his bank to be insolvent, was placed under $100,000 bonds at the request of the district attorney today. Schiffer was taken from the county jail at Alamosa to Pueblo and placed in jail there upon failure to supply the bond. The sheriff refused to give his reasons for removing the prisoner, but it is reported that depositors living in the remote sections of Colorado who lost money through the failure of the bank of Alamosa, have been coming into the town today and making threats against Schiffer.

Smuggling in Santo Domingo.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—H. F. Woley, an agent of the interior bureau, who was sent to Santo Domingo to investigate the revenue conditions on the border between the Dominican and Haytian republics, has made a partial report to the war department. He estimates that the smuggling that has been going on across this border has cost the Dominican government from $350,000 to $400,000 a year.

Strike on Mexican Central.
MONTEREY, Mexico, Oct. 9.—The strike situation on the Mexican Central railway remains practically unchanged. Not a train has been turned on the Monterey division since Saturday when the firemen walked out.

HUNGARIAN DIET WILL MEET TODAY*AND CONDITIONS ARE GOOD FOR MORE DIFFICULTY.*Proposed Compromise Has Not Been Made Because the King-Emperor Remains Obdurate.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 9.—When parliament assembled today it was to face a situation of the most confused confusion. The compromise program which the coalition leaders requested Von Szegedy-Marich, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Berlin, (at present on leave at Czor, Hungary) to submit proved a failure as his majesty has not yet indicated any intention to receive the ambassador for this purpose.

Great numbers of students will proceed to the parliament buildings tomorrow, all wearing mourning and carrying a black coffin, inscribed "the constitution of 1848." For this reason all possible steps have been taken to secure order during the sitting. The coalition leaders have abandoned their original intention to disregard the royal message again proroguing the diet. They will protest against permanent adjournment but will respect the king-emperor's message. No serious disorders are feared.

HE WOULD ADOPT THE OSLER THEORY IN REGARD TO CAPTAINS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—In his annual report to the secretary of war, Brigadier General Constant Williams, in command of the department of the Columbia, expresses decided views about the inexpediency of retaining in the military service officers, who, by reason of age, mental condition or physical ailments, are unable to endure the hardest field service and intelligently direct their troops. He would have no captain over the age of 40 years, and he suggests a rigid physical, mental and technical examination for every officer before he shall be placed in command of a regiment. A corollary of this project is a plan for the compulsory retirement of officers to insure the accession to high commands of men young enough for active field work.

Accident on the Danube.
BUDAPEST, Oct. 9.—At midnight a tug boat ran down a fruit seller's punt in the Danube river near Budapest. Fourteen women were drowned, six were saved and many were seriously injured.

MOSCOW RIOTS
WERE SUPPRESSED*SEVENTY-FIVE PERSONS WOUND-ED LAST SATURDAY.*Two Hundred Arrests Were Made After Much Firing Between Military and Mob.

MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—Complete order has been restored in the streets by the police and military patrols, reinforced by a regiment of dragoons, from Tver. Work was resumed today in some sections of the city, but the strike continues elsewhere.

At a meeting of street railway employees today a majority voted to accept the concessions offered by the employers and it is believed that the services will be resumed tomorrow. It is persistently reported that the steam railroad employees will strike Wednesday. It has been definitely ascertained that no one was killed during the disturbance of Saturday night, but that seven-five persons were wounded, including the officer commanding the gendarmes, three Cossacks and one policeman severely, and twenty policemen, gendarmes and Cossacks slightly.

When the troops fired on the houses from which the stones were thrown all the bullets lodged in the ceilings and there were no casualties.

Two hundred persons were arrested Saturday. Sixty-five of these were imprisoned and the remainder released.

PAT CROWE WAS

Fear His Escape*THOUSANDS GREETED THE NO-TORIOUS KIDNAPER.*Attired in His Fashionable Clothes He Little Resembled the Dangerous Criminal He Is.

OMAHA, Oct. 9.—Pat Crowe, shackled to Detective Heitfeld of the Omaha detective department, accompanied by Chief Detective Dunne, arrived in Omaha tonight from Butte, Mont., where he was arrested a week ago. A crowd of 2000 persons had gathered at the Union station and filled the station and approaches in every direction intent on securing a glimpse of Crowe.

A large cordon of police opened an aisle from the platform of the train to a patrol wagon in the rear of the station and Crowe, between the two detectives, with a patrolman walking ahead and another behind, was marched to the wagon, amid the cheers of some and execrations of others.

The extraordinary precautions taken by the police department for landing Crowe safely behind the bars seemed hardly necessary, for he gave no indication of escape. Apparently he had no wish to make his escape.

A large crowd followed the patrol wagon to the station, where another crowd had gathered to witness the return of the prisoner, who was hurried into the captain's office where he was registered. Opposite his name was placed the charge of shooting with intent to kill or wound.

Crowe was not inclined to talk of his past and refused absolutely to speak of his alleged connection with the kidnapping of Eddie Cudahy. He declared that much had been published of his alleged doings, confessions and other matters, which was without foundation. Among these he mentioned a confession said to have been signed by him at Butte, implicating Young Cudahy in a conspiracy in connection with the kidnapping.

"When this case comes to trial," said Crowe, "the truth will go to the world. God will take care of me; he takes care of everybody and makes no mistake. I do not feel nearly so anxious about securing my liberty again as I do to reform and get back to an honest life. I have a chance I believe I can do well again."

"Is it true that you once offered to return $75,000 to Edward A. Cudahy, if he would not prosecute you?" he was asked.

"I believe Mr. Cudahy has made the statement that I did so. I do not think he would tell a lie for $25,000," he replied.

Crowe's personal appearance is anything but that of a criminal. He is smoothly shaved, wears a stylish suit of clothes with patent leather shoes and other articles to match. Except for his hair, he does not look to be 36 years of age, which he says is his correct age.

RUSSIA HONORS
GALLANT HERO*BODY OF KONDRATENKO BURIED
AMID MUCH POMP*Thousands of Nobility, Military and Civil Dignitaries Followed Remains on Foot.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 9.—The arrival of the body of Major General Kondratenko, commander of the Sevastopol, killed December at Port Arthur and its interment in the venerable Alexander Nevsky Monastery yesterday, was marked by the most impressive military and civic spectacles witnessed here since early days of the war. For one of the classes of the population of the capital awakened from that apathy which was untouched by the news of the battles of Mukden or the Sea of Japan, or the announcement of the conclusion of peace.

Thousands of spectators standing silent and uncovered in a drizzling rain walked the broad Nevsky Prospekt from the Moscow station to the gates of the monastery, while grand dukes, ministers of state and the highest officers of the army and navy, many of whom had won distinction at Port Arthur and in Manchuria, followed the coffin on foot through the muddy streets as common mourners with the widow and son of the dead general.

In the procession could be seen the uniforms of every order of Russian military. Each regiment of the St. Petersburg garrison sent a detachment of veterans, many bearing the thirty-year service medals, to form the military escort.

Conspicuous among the clergy were two militant priests from Port Arthur, wearing the broad yellow and black ribbons of the Order of St. George awarded them for gallantry during the siege. The emperor was represented by deputations. The emperor had expected to attend, but as he was unable to do so, he was represented by Grand Duke Vladimir. Metropolitan Antonius, assisted by the chorists, celebrated the "panikhida" for requiem, and the blessed general Kondratenko as "the savior of the city, for whom he died the fortress fell."

She Took Carbolic Acid.
SAN DIEGO, Oct. 9.—Miss Mary Stew, 26 years of age, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid this evening at 427 Ninth street, where she resided with her mother. The Stewes came here from Chicago over a year ago. The young woman was employed as stenographer in a lawyer's office. Failing health, attended with severe headaches, is supposed to have caused her to end her life.

AUTOS WRECKED

ON SAN JOSE ROAD.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 9.—A forty horse power auto car driven to this city yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Koehler, Miss Cecil and Mr. and Mrs. A. Koehler, of San Francisco, is in a local garage smashed beyond recognition, the result of a collision last evening with a heavy car driven by John Wetmore of this city. The Koehler party was returning to San Francisco and when nearing Warm Springs the machines came together head-on. Koehler was badly out on the head and the entire party had a serious shaking up. Koehler's machine was badly damaged.

EMBEZZLER DOUGHERTY WILL PLEAD INSANITY
WHEN PUT ON TRIAL.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 9.—With the shadow of jail within sight, M. C. Dougherty, the defaulting school superintendent, this afternoon showed the first signs of collapse. His former friends have refused to go on his bond and it was stated today that as soon as the grand jury should finish its work he would be placed in jail. For the first time since the exposure of Dougherty's misdoings at his home today, it is said on good authority that he will not confess, but will plead not guilty and put up as a defense insanity, caused by a fall from a horse several years ago.

MAY BE SALVED*BUT THERE IS LITTLE HOPE FOR THE VESSEL.*Valuable Race Horse on Board—Ship's
Hull Intact—Sea Has Calmed Down.

EUREKA, Oct. 9.—The fate of the cargo and other valuables on board the wrecked steamer St. Paul is yet undetermined. Captain Randall, of the stranded craft, and Captain Turner, representing the underwriters, went to the scene Saturday and returned today, having boarded the vessel from a small boat. The steamer's hull is intact and the vessel has not yet been abandoned, though it is admitted she is lost. It seems possible to save the cargo or at least a portion of it. Captain Turner is communicating with San Francisco, and on instructions received from there will depend the next step.

The vessel, in the opinion of Turner and Randall, may hold together for some time. The sea, which has been quite choppy and washing over the hull, is becoming more calm and efforts probably will be made to save everything possible. The valuable race horse of J. N. Williamson of Portland is still aboard the craft and alive. Immediately upon his return this morning Captain Randall again left for the wreck by the overland route, accompanied by Williamson, who will make a last effort to save what can be done, saving a portion of the cargo from the land side.

Word has been received from Petrolin that another lifeboat of the St. Paul has gone ashore. It was picked up in good condition on the beach.

The vessel now swings in a thirty foot tide, which is considered bad for her holding together as long as at first expected. Captain Turner is awaiting word from the underwriters.

HUGHES REFUSED

NEW YORK CITY.

His Paramount Duty is to Push the Insurance Investigation to the Limit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the legislative insurance investigating committee, today declined the Republican nomination for mayor of New York city.

In stating his grounds for refusing the nomination which was tendered to him by the unanimous vote of the city Republican convention last Friday night, Hughes said:

"In this dilemma I have simply to do my duty as I see it. In my judgment I have no right to accept the nomination. A paramount public duty forbids it."

It is not necessary to enlarge upon the importance of the insurance investigation. This is undisputed. It is dealing with questions vital to the interests of millions of our fellow citizens throughout the land. It presents an opportunity for service second to none and involves a corporate responsibility. This work commands all my energies. It is imperative that I continue in it. You have frankly recognized that I must continue unembarrassed and with unimpaired efficiency. But it is entirely clear to me that this cannot be if I accept the nomination."

TWO CENT POSTAGE*Henniker Heaton's Strong
Plea For Its Institution*NO NEW MACHINERY WOULD BE NECESSARY.*Glaring Anomalies of Present Postal Charges Are Pointed Out—Wanamaker In Town.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—John Henniker Heaton, conservative member of parliament for Canterbury, known as the "father of the Imperial Penny Postage," established in 1839, published this morning a strong plea for a universal two cent postage. He points out that no expenditure would be involved in making the change, saying:

"An international half penny (1 cent) postage on printed matter already exists. If two ounces of printed matter can be sent anywhere for half penny, why should not a half ounce of written matter be sent for one penny? The world's post offices are working at a profit. In Great Britain nearly 6,000,000 pounds sterling ($25,000,000) and in France and Germany nearly 3,000,000 pounds sterling ($12,000,000) of excessive postage is paid annually, because it takes initial commutation corporations."

Heaton says it cost 5 cents to send a letter twenty-one miles to France and only 2 cents to send one 11,000 miles to the Fiji islands, a glaring anomaly that cannot be defended. He says he spent several days in June with Henry Wana-maker, former United States postmaster general discussing the scheme and adds: "Mr. Wana-maker visited Whitelaw Reid and I know that the result of their deliberations will give new interest to the movement and show an example of public spirit deserving the highest praise."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—Orlando Fitzsimmons, head of the "Cumulative Credit" company of this city and San Francisco, lately barred from using the United States mails, who was recently convicted of using the mails for lottery purposes, was today sentenced by Federal Judge Wellborn to serve six months in the county jail. His business associates, John W. Neighbors and E. A. Arnett, also convicted, were sentenced to five years of $250 each. The cases of all three will be appealed and the men were released on bonds. COLLEGIANS ARE FIRE FIGHTERS*BERKELEY UNIVERSITY THREAT-ENED BY FOREST FLAMES.*President Wheeler Organized and Led the Students in the Campaign of Safety.

BERKELEY, Oct. 9.—One thousand student cadets, hurriedly dismissed from their classes and personally led by President Wheeler, joined today by Captain J. T. Nanjee, U. S. A., commandant of the student soldiers, fought a fierce brush and grass fire today and saved the exposed college buildings from possible destruction. The flames were fought in the face of a strong north wind and before the fire was extinguished it swept over hundreds of acres on and about the university grounds.

Students and citizens joined the collegians and effectively protected the barns and buildings of several dairies, including the dairy conducted by the university agricultural department. As soon as it was seen that there was sweeping over the hill back of the university grounds, President Wheeler rushed from his office and requested the students to join him in battling with the flames.

President Wheeler declared there would be no more drill or recitations during the remainder of the morning and the collegians willingly accepted his invitation. A spectacular scene ensued when the students, bearing wet sacks and other hastily improvised fire fighting apparatus, marched up the hills in squads commanded by Captain Nanjee and various staff officers. The collegians formed in long lines and after an hour and a half hard work placed the flames under control. During the fire dense clouds of smoke were blown over the university grounds and the town of Berkeley.

Despite the hard work the flames, fanned by the steadily increasing north wind, broke away and swept toward Oakland. Not only the students but professors and instructors joined in the fire fighting. The local fire and police departments, as well as many Berkeley citizens, responded to call. The hapless residences of Judge Joseph Stetson, Henry Butters, the millionaire mining man, Whitney Palache and James Palache, San Francisco business men, are in danger of being swept away.

Late this afternoon the fire reached the grounds of the state institute for the deaf, dumb and blind, under the direction of Professor Warring Wilkins, the head of the institute, the Wilkins fought the fire with the apparatus on the grounds. The fences in the rear of the institute grounds were destroyed.

PRICE OF A LIFE

MRS. BLANCHE WREN WANTS $25,000 FOR LOSS OF HUSBAND.

Water Company Brings Suit for Contamination of Easements in Slough Country.

Mrs. Blanche H. Wren wants $25,000 for the loss of her husband, Fred M. Wren, who was killed in the sawmill of the Fresno Flume & Irrigation Co. at Shaver on July 27th. The complaint was filed yesterday by Smith & Ostrander for the widow.

The complaint charges that Wren's death was brought about by the carelessness of the company in putting an inexperienced man in charge of the levers that work the "nigger" of the large carriage in the mill. Wren was killed by a log whirled over the carriage.

According to the complaint James Bone, the regular sawyer, knew that there was something wrong with the machinery because the "nigger" refused properly to respond to his pull. He called another man, Theodore Bertrand, to the lever while he went below to adjust the springs controlling the "nigger." Bertrand, it is claimed, was inexperienced. He gave the lever a false twist and sent the log with great force to the place where Wren was working. Wren was killed instantly. The wife was living at Shaver at the time. The complaint declares that Wren was getting $60 a month and was taken off early in life, he being only 29 years old at the time he was killed.

Asks for Easements.

A suit was filed yesterday by the Union Water & Ditch Co. against the J. G. James Co., Jacob Browning and the Crescent Canal Co. The suit is brought for the purpose of condemning the water easement on seventeen sections of land belonging to the J. G. James Co., five sections to Browning and one section to the Crescent Canal Co., all in the slough country, on the plea of "public use."

The property sought to be condemned is an easement in the lands of said defendants, who have a right to prevent the flow over their lands of water the plaintiff proposes to take from the Kings river above any of the land of the defendants. The plaintiff proposes to take out 400 cubic feet per second but never to take out such a quantity that enough will not go by to allow the defendants all the water necessary for reasonable and economic use upon their riparian lands.

The plaintiff claims to be in charge of a certain public utility, namely, the watering of a large acreage in Tulare and Kings counties, and on the claim of "public use" the plaintiff asks that the court grant to it the easement named in the complaint. It is asked that all the property sought to be taken be assessed for damages, which the plaintiff will pay.

Morrison & Cope and Joseph H. Chamberlin, San Francisco attorneys, are for the plaintiff. The case falls in Judge Church's department.

Civil Matters.

Emilie G. Cohen has answered five complaints filed by Contractor Conrad Metzler. Metzler sued to collect assessments for street work on Selma lots. The answers make specific denial of all allegations of the plaintiff. E. G. Knapp of San Francisco is the defendant's attorney.

Judge Church ordered for the plaintiff yesterday in John C. Voss against Warner Bros. Voss sued for judgment on a judgment given him on September 6, 1899, which has never been paid. The sum asked was $798.95 and interest since 1899.

A statement on a motion for a new trial has been filed by Strother & Strother and Harris & Perkins for the defendants in the suit of L. P. Giffen against the Selma Fruit Co.

Another suit was commenced yesterday by the Raisin Growers' Co. against a grower. J. M. Merrill has 150 acres in the company which he wants to keep out. John Grummett has been appointed receiver to dispose of the crop according to the contract signed by Merrill.

Judge Austin yesterday gave judgment for the plaintiff in the Samuel Dusenberry against H. A. Adams suit. Dusenberry sued for judgment on a $948.68 note covered by a mortgage. L. L. Cory was his attorney. E. M. Harris was appointed commissioner by the court.

Mrs. H. T. Drake against H. C. De Witt was set for trial on November 4th. R. L. Avenall against the Consolidated Canal Co. for November 1st.

The Baker Estate.

D. D. Allison, H. T. Rudy and Frank Romain have returned their appraisal of the estate of W. J. Baker, deceased, and Joseph W. Baker, minor. The Baker estate is appraised at $25,000.57 of which $14,000 is in real estate. The half interest in lots 53, 54, 55 and 78, Easterly ranch, is placed at $10,000 and property in Santa Cruz is $4,000. In the estate is $25,934 in cash. Joseph W. Baker's estate is worth $31,588.54 and consists of lot 76 and half interest in lots 53, 54, 55 and 78 Easterly ranch, worth $15,000 and a $15,000 interest in the estate of Dr. Baker. L. O. Stephens is Baker's guardian.

Probate Matters.

Judge Austin yesterday appointed Mary L. Doolittle administratrix of the estate of George L. Doolittle and guardian of George B. and Wirt H. Doolittle, minors. Her attorney is M. F. McCormick. The bond on the husband's estate was fixed at $500 and on each of the children at $1000.

Mrs. Carrie Curran was yesterday given letters on the estate of her daughter, Miss Ivy Soelner, who was killed on September 23rd by a Commercial Transfer Co. wagon. The administratrix bond of $1500 was covered by Dr. G. L. Long and Jacob Hockensbury.

The public administrator has gotten final distribution of the A. M. Sevey estate. The whole of the estate goes to A. L. Sevey, the son of Mrs. A. M. Sevey. M. F. McCormick represented the estate.

Wythe Giffen, Ed Pugh and O. D. Berryhill have been appointed appraisers of the John D. Rosenberger estate. J. M. Bramblett has been designated administrator of the estate of William R. Patterson. The residue of the estate goes to Bramblett, the assignee of Mrs. Z. F. Taylor, formerly the widow of W. R. Patterson. The property in question is lots 5 and 8, block 60, East Fresno addition.

Hauschild furniture of the Fritz El sole estate has been ordered set aside for the widow, Minnie Eisele.

The will of Pamela A. Moffett has been admitted to probate and Le Guendelinger is administrator. The deceased died in New York and left real estate in this country. Guendelinger's bond is $100.

BARTON ATTRACTIONS

Group from "The Girl From Kay's"

The attraction at the Barton for tomorrow evening will be the huge production of "The Girl From Kay's," a farce comedy with music that has enjoyed quite a "go" in London and also in New York. Ivan Carroll composed the music and Owen Hall the book, and the latter is said to present a more consistent and sensible plot than the average "girl" effusions that cross the Atlantic. Interspersed through the story are a number of rollicking melodies, some of the hits being "Customers at Kay's," "Matilda and the Builder," "Egypt" and "Sufficiency."

The London run of the piece lasted over two years while the New York stay spanned a period of almost similar length. It is conceded to be the biggest comedy musical success the two cities have ever known.

The costumes of the female contingent are pronounced dreams from the celebrated millinery establishment in New York conducted by Mrs. Robert Osborn, the designs being bona fide duplications of what the American and London 400 are now wearing.

The engagement in this city is for but one night and the management is particularly desirous that it be known that the curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock promptly to enable them to present all the features of the big show completely. Seats are on sale all day.

Ethel Barrymore in "Sunday."

"Sunday" is the four-act play in which Miss Ethel Barrymore has made a decided hit, will be seen at the Barton next Friday night. It is a far cry from the elderly cousin Kate of last year to the light-hearted heroine of "Sunday."

ON TENNIS COURTS

FOUR MEN REMAIN UNBEATEN IN HANDICAP SINGLES.

Of the Matches Played Sunday That Between Otis and Brown Was the Most Interesting.

In a number of exciting matches, some of which were quite cleverly contested, the handicap singles tennis tournament at the Racket Club courts was concluded up to the semi-final round last Sunday. The men in the lower classes were soonest put out and the end of the play left Ralph Bixby and J. K. Turner of the first class, E. M. Otis of the second and H. Ward of the third class to finish the contest next Sunday.

The closest and most exciting match of the day was that between Otis and H. Brown, both second class men, played from scratch. Otis played two fully the first set and was outtrilled by his nimble opponent, who annexed the set at 6-2. Otis opened the second set with a series of hurricane drives, which were well placed, passing Brown repeatedly. The result was in doubt, however, until the last point was played, but Otis finally won the set at 6-4.

In the third set every point was hotly contested and there were a number of long rallies, each man playing carefully. Otis secured a lead of 4-2, but Brown won the next three games and looked a winner. Repeatedly he was in one point of winning the match, but Otis finally brought the set to a close at 5-4. Again, with the score 6 to 5 in his favor Brown was several times in one point of taking the match. But each time he failed to win the final stroke and when the score was 6 all he weakened slightly and Otis took the next two games, winning the set at 8-6. This match was watched with unusual interest. The summary follows:

First round—Otis, scratch, beat Butler, 15; 6-0, 6-2. Bixby, owe 15, beat Laska, scratch, 6-2, 6-4. Bell, scratch, beat Jack, scratch, by default. Ward, 3-6, beat Spence, 3-6; by default. Otis, scratch, beat Wright, scratch; 6-2, 3-6, 6-2. Brown, scratch, beat Shaeffer, 15; 8-6, 6-1. Turner, owe 15, beat Bottoms, scratch, by default. L. Levy, 3-6, beat G. Shannon, 3-6; by default.

Second round—Bixby beat Boot; 6-1, 6-3. Ward beat Bell; 4-6, 6-2, 7-5. Otis beat Brown; 6-2, 6-4, 8-6. Turner beat Levy; 6-1, 6-2.

The best players in the club will meet in the three final matches and as the handicaps are about right the fastest play of the tournament is expected. The semi-final round will start at ten next Sunday morning.

RHEUMATISM

AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE THAT BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST

Rheumatism does not come on in a day; the causes that produce it work silently in the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc.; such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates the sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.

Manufacturers who have not yet brought themselves to the point of accepting advertising as the quickest method of distributing and standardizing their goods, are looking with secret envy at the success of other manufacturers who have been quick to accept this short cut to a larger business.

No question exists today in the mind of any manufacturer as to whether or not his goods can be advertised.

Every single issue of The LADIES' HOME JOURNAL demonstrates that some new article, hitherto unadvertised, has been added to the list of those which are being sold under their own name and trade-mark direct to the consumer.

No article manufactured for human use is outside the possibilities of having its sales increased and its future insured by successful advertising, and no advertising that is designed to reach the home and its occupants, and that is clean, good and wholesome, can leave out of consideration THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL and realize its greatest possibilities.

Magnifying Glasses

There is nothing so injurious to the eyes as glasses which greatly magnify. It is not natural for the eyes to see objects too large or too small. The object of glasses is to make everything clear and distinct but not unnatural in size. Magnifying glasses are usually sold by traveling spectacle sellers who go from house to house. They cannot possibly make a correct examination of the eyes and so they sell a glass that will make everything look fine until they are out of the way and then the patient finds he cannot wear them. We have had so many of these dissatisfied people come to us that we can almost tell them the minute they enter the door. But just as long as people trust their eyes to traveling quacks just that long will there be ruined eyes. The cost is little more if any to have your eyes fitted in a well equipped office by a competent optician.

VENTURA VISITED BY STUBBORN FIRE

TWO NEGRO CHILDREN KILLED BY THE FLAMES.

Livery Stable, Two Story Block and Other Buildings Burned—Range
Fires Raging.

VENTURA, Cal., Oct. 9.—Ventura has been visited in the past twelve hours by the most stubborn fire in its history. One of the late night fires destroyed a vast amount of property and another early today burned the home of a negro family, two children losing their lives.

Sauborn's big livery stable took fire just before midnight last night. A northeast gale was blowing at the time and it was not long before the whole structure was a mass of flames. The two-story Allyn block adjoining, just completed, was in the path of the fire and was soon in flames. The efforts of the fire company were confined to saving the Amacapa hotel and other property. The hotel was on fire time after time, causing the guests to abandon it, and everything was removed. The fire finally was subdued and the hotel was saved.

The entire Allyn block was destroyed. Three business places occupied the lower floor and all are a total loss. They were Person's tailor shop and clothing store, loss $3500; Kay's cigar store, loss $2000; Pazio's Bodega saloon, loss $3000. All were partially insured. Allyn's loss is about $10,000, exclusive of insurance. The livery stable belonged to William McGuire, whose loss is $2500, uninsured. The horses and vehicles of Sauborn were all saved but a big stock of hay was burned. Smaller losses are reported in every section of the town, the wind carrying the burning embers in every direction. Electric light service was broken and the town was in darkness. The cause of the fire is unknown.

This morning, while the firemen were patrolling the ruins and extinguishing the last of the flames, another alarm was turned in. The home of John McDonald, a negro laborer, caught fire and before the firemen could reach the scene it was in ruins. The mother had gone to a neighbor's, leaving two children asleep in the house. Before they could be saved the roof and walls had fallen in and the children, 2 years and 6 months old respectively, were burned to death. The father had gone to fight the forest fires in the hills north of Ventura. There is much excitement over the fires and the schools have been closed for the day.

Forest fires are burning to the north of Ventura and many men have gone to the scene. No particulars have come in of the damage as it is a considerable distance to the fires, but great damage has probably resulted to ranchers.

Nordhoff and the Odjai valley are threatened by the worst forest fire that has ever occurred in that section. The whole of the north slope of Sulphur mountain, heavily wooded and covered with underbrush, is a mass of seething flames and is swept by a strong east wind. Every store in Nordhoff is closed and merchants, farmers and every available man in the valley is out in the hills fighting the fire. Calls have been sent to Ventura and surrounding towns for help. Hundreds of acres of land have been swept by the flames and fences, out buildings, wood and have been destroyed. The fire started on the south slope of Sulphur mountains Sunday afternoon and the wind carried it in every direction. Great damage will result unless the flames are soon checked.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 9.—While the fire near Carpinteria is still burning, Forest Supervisor Shallen believes that if the wind does not spring up he will have it under control. During the night a large area of forest and some pine land was burned over, one amount of hay belonging to the property was destroyed. While the amount of damage done cannot be estimated at this time, it will be large. Fully 100 men battled with the flames all night and relief for them was put on this morning. There is no further danger to the towns of Carpinteria, Summerland or Montecito, as the flames are working up into the mountains instead of toward the coast.

The efforts of the rangers and volunteer fighters have been entirely directed to preventing the fire from reaching these places.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Oct. 9.—A fire in the business part of this city early this morning caused a loss of about $20,000.

The fire was first discovered in Sacramento's stable in the business part of the city, a strong north wind was blowing and most of the buildings in the block were soon enveloped in flames. The fire then spread across Nipomo street, consuming three dwellings in the adjoining block. The old Lima hotel and the Perfume residence sustained the heaviest losses. Mrs. W. C. Strong

GOVERNOR OF INDIANA ASSERTS THAT NATION HAS GONE MAD

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—"This nation has gone mad money mad. For ten years this land has enjoyed material wealth and prosperity such as the world has never before seen, and during that time this madness has come upon us in full force. We have forgotten the commandment 'Thou shalt not steal' and we are taking a position no man can hold money is obtained. We cannot continue in this ruin indefinitely and secure the continuance of free institutions. The dangers of peace will destroy this country at the present rate just as certainly as a disastrous war."

Such was the keynote of a speech on "The Patriotic of Peace" delivered by Governor Frank J. Hanley of Indiana last night at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, in which the Hoosier chief executive sounded a vehement note of warning to Americans against allowing continuance of graft, official corruption and disregard for law in the scramble for plunder.

Governor Hanley painted a dark picture of conditions in the United States and insisted that the very life of the nation was dependent on a speedy return to sane ideas and honest methods.

FOSTER TALKS OF MALARIA

PRESIDENT OF STATE BOARD OF HEALTH INTERVIEWED.

Malaria is Caused Only by Mosquitoes —Common House Flies are Very Dangerous.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9.—Dr. N. K. Foster, of the state board of health, was interviewed today in regard to the reported increase of malaria as stated by certain newspapers. Dr. Foster said that the report was unfounded as far as he was aware. Such malaria as existed in the Sacramento valley was of a very trivial nature and it bore no reference whatever to the state of the river.

"Malaria," said Dr. Foster, "is due to one cause and to one cause only—the mosquito. Malaria is more common in the neighborhood of wet, swampy land for the simple reason that the mosquito is more common there. Otherwise there is no direct relation between malaria and water. The remedy is very simple—exterminate the mosquito. Malaria, however, is not due to the same variety of mosquito that causes yellow fever. The latter has never been known in California, although of course it might make its appearance. Those who are liable to malaria have the remedy largely in their own hands. They must take care to protect themselves from being bitten by means of screens and curtains. If the mosquito bites a person who has malaria he will communicate the disease to the next person whom he bites.

Malaria and yellow fever are not the only diseases that are spread through insect agencies. The common house fly does an enormous amount of mischief and especially in regard to typhoid. The habits of the house fly are filthy as they can be. Wherever there is filth there you are sure to find him. His legs are naturally covered with the objectionable matter upon which the typhoid feeding, possibly the sputum of typhoid patients, and this in turn deposited upon our persons and also upon human food. It is only necessary to observe the housefly to understand the amount of trouble and sickness that he can cause. There is no doubt but measures ought to be taken for his suppression, and this also is quite an easy matter. Flies breed almost exclusively in stables, and if preventive measures were adopted this could easily be prevented. The use of coal oil at certain seasons of the year would do a great deal and it would be a still more effective measure to deposit all stable refuse in fly-proof receptacles. In some parts of America this has been made compulsory and as a result it is hardly possible to find a fly anywhere.

"Regarding the great epidemic diseases, such as cholera, I believe California is quite safe for the present. I still maintain, however, that my recommendations as to keeping the watersheds uncontaminated ought to be carried out. I myself am a great believer in camping and have done myself, but it should not be allowed to become a source of danger to drinking water. The camp is a temporary affair and there is therefore not the same sense of responsibility as in the case of a house, and camping parties ought not to be allowed on the watershed. It is very easy to say that I am a crank on this subject, but I am right."

TURKISH BRIGANDS SENT GRUESOME PACKAGE TO BRITISH CONSUL.

ON THE EVE OF WABASH BATTLE

GOULD AND RAMSEY ARE BOTH CONFIDENT.

Supporters of the Former Say He Did Not Even Need the Court Decision to Win.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 9.—George J. Gould arrived in Toledo late this afternoon ready for the annual meeting of the Wabash railroad tomorrow. Joseph Ramsey Jr., ex-president of the road, the former friend and present antagonist of Gould, is also on the ground prepared to fight for the control of the Wabash system. With Gould came William S. Gould, a director of the Wabash, and Gould's legal adviser, Edgar T. Welles and Colonel W. H. Blodgett, vice-president of the system and E. T. Jeffrey, president of the Denver and Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western and one of Gould's chief lieutenants. Other directors of the road are here and all of them seem friendly to Gould and disposed to uphold his interests. Ramsey, save for his legal advisors, seems to stand practically alone.

Gould this afternoon declined to discuss the probable outcome of the meeting but his friends confidently predict that he will not only retain control of the Wabash system by an overwhelming majority but that when the smoke of the battle has cleared away it will be found not only that Ramsey failed to gain control of the system, but that he has been removed from it entirely and that his name does not even appear in the new board of directors.

Ramsey, like Gould, declines to make predictions. He is, however, to all appearances cheerful and confident to a degree. Neither side will give figures as to the total number of proxies controlled but the Gould party declare tonight that the decision of Judge Taylor in St. Louis, which gave to Gould practically 140,000 votes, meant nothing to him so far as ability to control the meeting is concerned. No matter how that case was decided, they claim, Gould has so large an excess of votes that he could not only have lost the 140,000 but could even have transferred them to Ramsey without affecting the result.

To statements such as these Ramsey says nothing. He simply laughs and says: "We will know all about it tomorrow."

HORSE RACING RECORDS BEATEN AND EQUALED ON BELMONT PARK TRACK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Aeronauf, the favorite, backed from 3 to 1 to 2 to 1, won the Westchester handicap, six and a half furlongs, at Belmont Park today, and in so doing equaled the world's record of 1:18 2-5, held jointly by Maritima and Mineola. Aeronauf went to the front at the start and opened up a gap of three lengths, which he held in the finish. Kiamasha, the favorite, carrying 104 pounds, equaled the world's record for one mile on a circular track held by Dick Welles, by covering the distance in 1:25. Grapple in this race set a terrific pace for a quarter of a mile, when Lord of the Vale assumed and led to the stretch. Here Knapp brought Kiamasha up and in a hard drive landed her a winner by a length from Eugenia Burch.

MURDER AND SUICIDE SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY IN INDIAN TERRITORY.

HASKELL, I. T., Oct. 9.—The bodies of Miss Margaret Lindsay, a school teacher, and Joseph B. Buelah, a barber, were found today in the road three miles north of Haskell. There were marks of violence on the bodies and a revolver was found near the scene. The couple were last seen alive on Sunday evening, when they drove out of Haskell in a buggy. The woman taught at the Stone Bluff country school near Haskell. Buelah lived at Rixby. It was apparent that Buelah had murdered the woman and then committed suicide. Both had been shot through the breast, the bullet in each case barely missing the heart. There were powder marks on Buelah's body, indicating that he had held the revolver close to his breast when he shot himself.

SCHOONER GUIDE OF SAN FRANCISCO IS REPORTED LOST.

PORTLAND, Oct. 9.—A special dispatch to the Evening Telegram from Astoria quotes the captain of the schooner Oakland, which arrived there late Saturday night from San Francisco after a terrible experience on account of stormy weather, as expressing the belief that the schooner Guide, bound for Tillamook from San Francisco, was lost in the storm. Both vessels were trying to enter Tillamook when the great storm came up. The captain of the Oakland said he did not know the Guide after the storm blew itself out and feared she had gone to the bottom with all hands. The Oakland could not get over the bar at Tillamook and came to Astoria. She was badly damaged in her rigging by the storm.

PIONEERS OF UTAH TRAVEL IN PULLMANS OVER OLD WAGON ROUTE.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Oct. 9.—A party of nearly thirty pioneers of Utah, survivors of a party which in 1851 made the journey overland from Salt Lake to Los Angeles, tonight departed for Los Angeles over the Salt Lake route as guests of Senator William A. Clarke. The party in special Pullmans will go over practically the same route that they traveled by wagon and on foot in 1851. The party will spend some time at Las Vegas, Nev., where as pioneers they established a mission of a Mormon church. At Los Angeles, San Pedro and San Bernardino they will be entertained by commercial and other organizations.

Scott was elected to succeed him as head of the company. Two vacancies in the board of directors were occasioned by the resignation of George A. Moore and Dr. W. K. Cluness. To succeed them F. W. Drum and G. H. Umberson were elected.

YALE STUDENTS WERE ALTOGETHER TOO FRESH AND WILL BE ARRESTED

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 9.—Several freshmen of Yale University who are arrested, it is said, on the charge of breach of the peace and disorderly conduct as the result of wild pranks which they carried out last night in the vicinity of Pierson hall, the stronghold of the college settlement. They jumped on and ran trolley cars, drove a policeman from his seat and frightened several women almost into hysterics. Blank cartridges were shot off in buckets of water, bundles of papers on fire were thrown from rooms in the third and fourth floors of Pierson hall on the heads of pedestrians. For nearly two hours they blocked York street and allowed nothing but trolley cars to go through it, and those on irregular schedule. Complaint was made tonight and warrants have been drawn for the arrest of several of the alleged leaders of the disturbances. A squad of fifteen policemen finally quelled the outbreak, but made no arrests tonight. Four policemen smashed the doors of Pierson hall and were compelled to grope through the dormitory in darkness and failed to lay hands on a student.

Good Crackers and Others

A good cracker or biscuit is now acknowledged to be one of the most wholesome—most healthful and in every respect one of the most desirable articles of family diet. In this age of adulteration and spurious imitation it is well when buying crackers or biscuits from your grocer to insist on the "AMERICAN" brand. No other crackers or biscuits are quite as pure or quite as good. Ask your grocer for the "Acrite" carton.

STAGE CARICATURES.

Everything on the stage is an exaggeration or a caricature. If people on the stage should act as they do in real life, it would appear dull, uninteresting and awkward. If people in the actual world should act as they do in the stage world, they would be looked upon for lunatics. For acting is an art, and the worst possible art is that which merely reproduces reality. But the caricatures of the stage, and the way they are taken by the audience, have nevertheless their value, for the side-lights they cast on the actualities of life.

One of the most interesting illustrations is in the accepted type of the various professions. Occasionally a clergyman is seen on the stage who is taken seriously, but even he is likely to be pictured as lacking in humor, breadth, and humanizing sympathy or insight. More often, the stage preacher is simply a broad caricature of hypocrisy, narrow-mindedness, shallow prejudice, and ludicrous stupidity. While actual clergymen could of course be found corresponding to the type of which this is an exaggeration, nobody in his senses seriously supposes that this is a true picture of the clergy as a profession. Yet countless audiences of people in their senses accept this picture, on the stage, without offense or resentment.

The stage lawyer is practically always heartless and unscrupulous. Sometimes he is "smart" and "fresh;" at other times he is witty and astute. But he is never quite human. The stage doctor may sometimes be treated sympathetically; sometimes he is a mere lay-figure, to announce impossible diagnoses with as much certainty and nonchalance as the footman who speaks the famous line "The carriage waits, my lord;" and sometimes he is a mere amusing caricature of stupidity, pomposity, and petty jealousy. The stage newspaperman is always an immodest but refractory, bubbling over with energy, paying into everybody's business and roasting with scandal if he writes anything which we are permitted to hear read, it is either entirely insane sensationalism, or else a sample of that stilted, lame, wooden jargon, which nobody ever reads in a newspaper, but which all writers outside the newspaper ranks, imagine is still written in newspapers.

These characters are all interesting, and they are of course all more or less true to some fragment of life. But they are all but one good-natured caricatures to be laughed at most heartily by the very persons they satirize. The one exception, of course, is the clergy. The stage clergyman is amusing, but he is intended to arouse the amusement of contempt rather than of sympathy; he is intended as a charge of insincerity, hypocrisy and inhuman intolerance against the profession. Perhaps it is only because the stage and the clergy have always been at sword's points, and the stage is merely returning, with interest, some of the hard rapings it gets from the pulpit. But when the sensational preacher launches an unjust and indecent tirade against the stage and its people, he arouses an indignant defense, silent or expressed, from those of his audience who know better. When the stage, on the contrary, launches an unjust and not always decent caricature at the preacher, the audience takes it good naturedly, even those (always the majority) who know better. Why this is, we do not know, and perhaps it does not point any moral. But it is at least an interesting and familiar fact.

A UNION OPEN SHOP.

The Los Angeles Times complains that the government printing office is theoretically an open shop, but actually has very few non-union printers. That is exactly what was to have been expected. There are comparatively few non-union printers in the country capable of holding a job in the government office. The Typographical Union has made its monopoly of competent labor nearly absolute, and a really "open" shop in the printing trades anywhere would necessarily consist almost entirely of union men. If all sides would realize this, there would be less worry over the open shop and closed shop. The Typographical Union, which has less need of it than almost any other, is one of the most insistent unions for the closed shop. If unions realized that they did not need the closed shop, and if employers realized that they would have mostly union employees to deal with under the open shop, there might be some room to settle the question on the basis of right and wrong. The unions now advocate the closed shop, not because they believe it is right, but because they believe it is necessary to their existence. The employers now advocate the open shop, not because it is right, but because they believe, with the unions, that it would break up the unions. When the unions realize that they can survive the open shop, and the employers realize that they will have to reckon with the unions, even under the open shop, then the obvious fairness of the open shop and the logical inflexibility of the closed shop will be recognized. Men like Mitchell and Gommers will no longer have to justify themselves by defending the unfair closed shop, in the name of fairness, and the fair cause of the open shop will no longer be stultified by being defended under false pretenses, by such advocates as D. M. Parry and Herbert George.

Senator Flint, in an interview in Los Angeles, is reported as saying that he is "inclined to doubt the feasibility of leaving so important a matter as fixing railway rates to the interstate commerce commission." When he was first elected, and the cry of "railroad candidate" was raised against him, Senator Flint announced himself as of the opposite opinion. Doubtless, however, the wisdom of experience has now taught him new dangers in public regulation of railways with which at that time he was unfamiliar.

UNIONS AND PROFESSIONS.

The Los Angeles Examiner, discussing the recent report of the United States Bureau of Labor, in which the charge is made that unions limit apprentices, restrict output, and reduce all workmen to the standard of the least competent, undertakes to show that these things, right or wrong, are only the things which the lawyers' union, the doctors' union, and the capitalist trust are doing, and that therefore the reproach of them, if reproach there be, is not to be cast especially on the unions. As to the capitalist trusts, of course the charge is true. They have combined to monopolize industry, squeeze out competition, reduce output, boycott, blacklist, and do all the other things for which they berate the unions. It is not a particularly strong argument for either trust or union to make, in defense of these practices, to show that they are characteristic of the most execrable part of the conduct of the other, but the claim at least serves as a gag, to stop the mouth of the other side.

The case of the professions, on the other hand, offers no analogy. Both law and medicine are in a way "closed shops," in which nobody not a member of the organized profession is permitted to work, to which admission is restricted, and in which certain rules of ethics are enforced, by a refusal to work with one who violates them. But the analogy is only superficial. The organization of each of these professions is a creature of the law, not a private society. The law regulates the standard of admission to the profession, and any one possessing the legal qualifications may enter the profession as a right, not as a favor. Once in, he is still subject, not to the majority vote of his colleagues, but to the law. The only qualifications for admission are knowledge of the profession and character enough to be trusted with its responsibilities. One possessing these qualifications cannot be turned out for failure to pay dues or refusal to obey orders. All the rules of the professions enjoin loyalty to the interests of the client or patient, even at the sacrifice of the interest of the practitioner. Both are professions which the public interest requires to be confined to persons whom the public authorities have determined to be competent. It is a crime at law, and in the nature of things, for any man to practice medicine who has not first received a license certifying him to be properly educated in medicine. It is not a crime, nor a wrong, for a man to saw boards or pound iron who has chosen not to join the union, or has been refused membership by it. Such a man may be an injury to the union, but he is no menace to himself, his employer or the public. So, a lawyer is an officer of the court, charged with certain public responsibilities and privileges. The law properly grants this public office only to those who have satisfied the public requirements for it. And any member of the carpenters' union can enter the lawyers' union, without the consent of that union, without paying dues to it, and without being subject to its orders. No member of the lawyer's union can enter the carpenters' union on these terms.

The two cases are so wholly different that it would not be worth words to show their difference, except that the Examiner's confused sophistry is the echo of an argument by no means uncommon, among those who have never taken the pains to think their own thoughts out to the end, to see what it means.

MAKING INVESTIGATIONS.

The federal grand jury will report next Monday. It convened in the courthouse yesterday morning and during the day continued with its investigation. J. D. Butler, the Bakersfield counterfeiter who was arrested in August, it is thought that there may be no indictment against him. Butler, however, the coins he had were made for the purpose of using in slot machines. Nevertheless the coins were counterfeit though very crude. C. E. Reel, M. Coyne, J. H. Lewis, J. C. Baker, and M. Bell were called to testify in the case.

Next Monday the full term of the grand jury will open with Judge Welborn on the bench. The session of the court here will be short.

A DAYLIGHT BURGLARY.

Enters Room With Skeleton Key and Secures Jewelry.

A well-dressed and gentlemanly appearing fellow walked into Giger's apartment house on Tulare street, just Sunday afternoon and going to the second floor, opened one of the doors with a skeleton key. Undetected he searched the room and removed eight valuable snuff pines, six gold rings and a lady's gold watch and chain. Then he walked out of the house without any one's paying any particular attention to him. The other notices of the robbery of the loss later in the afternoon, but no clue has been found to the identity of the thief.

Preliminary Examination.

Friday Constable Davis had his preliminary examination on four felony charges at Firebaugh. Judge Smith later sitting for Justice Evans, withheld judgment on the cases until the misdemeanor trial is over with. On Saturday no jury for that trial was obtainable because District Attorney Jones had taken a jury of Firebaugh hanger-on. The case was continued till Wednesday. Jones may dismiss the case because he knows Mrs. Sample and Thorne will testify that Davis is subject to temporary fits of insanity.

DRIVING OVER SIDEWALKS.

A Crusade to be Taken Against the Offenders.

Ed Kimball, an employee of Ben Hill's established car rental business, who is rested on a charge of violating the city ordinance against driving over sidewalks and will be prosecuted. He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Street Superintendent Spencer states that the number of offenses against this ordinance have been increasing greatly lately, and if the city's property is not to be destroyed, some strong measures must be taken. He has warned a great number of offenders during the past two weeks, but apparently without avail. The offense for which Kimball is rested on a charge of violating the city ordinance against driving over sidewalks and will be prosecuted. He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

It is particularly necessary for the city officials to look out for the condition of the sidewalks, as the city is responsible for their maintenance. The property owners undertake the first cost, the city is responsible for keeping them in repair.

NEW YORK WON FIRST OF SERIES

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP ON THE DIAMOND THE PRIZE.

Philadelphia Americans Were Shut Out While National Pennant Winners Tallied Twice.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Masterly pitching by Christy Mathewson, backed by glib fielding by the men behind him, gave the New York National league champions a victory today over the Philadelphia Americans in the first of seven games for the world's championship. Philadelphia failed to score, Mathewson allowing the home team only four hits, while the New Yorkers managed to score three runs off Plank. Although defeated, Philadelphia played a brilliant game.

While the interest in the series is widespread the crowd was not as large as that which saw any one of the three games between the home team and Chicago when they played their series about ten days ago for first place. The paid admissions were officially announced at 17,963. The two teams will play in New York tomorrow.

Score: R. H. E.

STRAHER ST. PAUL REPORTS BEST NIGHT STILL RESTING FAMILY.

EUREKA, Cal., Oct. 9.—Resting on the rocks as if in her dock, is the report which comes from Petrolia tonight concerning the wrecked stranded steamer St. Paul. The steamer Pomona, Captain Swanson, also reported that the St. Paul was in an upright position when he passed her this morning on the way to Eureka. Just what can be saved from the ship is not certain and probably will not be known for several days. The difficulty is to get near the craft either from land or sea and it is problematical how long the present fair weather will last and the boat hold together. The wreck report which has been filed by the captain shows that the vessel went ashore Thursday, October 5th, at 2:30 a. m. The weather was described as foggy with light southerly winds blowing. The value of the ship is given by the captain at $250,000 and the cargo at $10,000. The report mentions the cargo and ship as a total loss.

NIGHT REPORT OF SANTA BARBARA FIRES WAS MORE ENCOURAGING.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 9.—At 8 o'clock tonight Forest Supervisor Slott gave out the statement that the fire which has been raging in the mountains since last Saturday night is under control, although a strong wind might again spread the flames to new localities. This is not probable, however, as no wind prevails at this time. The fire is plainly visible on the ridges of the mountains from this city but is in a locality where it will spend itself. Scores of men are on guard in the district and their services have been of inestimable value. Many small fires have been extinguished by them which might have proved serious had they gained headway. The property losses as a result of the fire are variously estimated at from $20,000 to $150,000 but the latter figure probably is more nearly correct.

RAILROAD PLANNED FROM RED BLUFF TO FALL RIVER MILLS.

RED BLUFF, Oct. 9.—Articles of incorporation of the Red Bluff and Fall River Railroad company were filed today in the recorder's office of this county this afternoon. The capital stock is $1,000,000 of which $60,150 has been paid into the treasury. The purpose of the company is to build a standard gauge railroad from this city to Fall River Mills, via Shingletown. The directors of the company are: D. E. Miles, C. K. King, A. M. McCoy, Claus Trede, E. B. Walbridge and H. Alexander. Trede, of Shingletown, Samuel Leavitt of San Francisco, James S. Ramage of Minnesota and O. P. Montelius of Oakland.

RAILROAD COMPANIES IN VICINITY OF NAPA RESORT TO THE COURTS.

NAPA, Oct. 9.—The Vallejo and Napa Valley Railway company filed suit today against the San Francisco and Napa Railway company for an injunction. The San Francisco and Napa Railway company is associated with the California Northwestern railway and is operating between Napa and San Francisco. The electric railway and the California Northwestern road are both extending their lines from Napa up to Union station, three miles from here. The electric railway has laid tracks along the agricultural tract and the other road seeks to cross them. Judge Gesford issued a temporary restraining order.

WESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE SQUABBLE HAS NOT BEEN SETTLED

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Lawyers interested in the struggle over the control of the Western Mutual Life company will meet today before Judge Kohlsaat and continue the argument of J. Rosenfeld and other officials of the company, who have been recommended by the board of directors to resign, against the board of directors. Reports were circulated that this had been accomplished and that Judge Kohlsaat would be asked to sit as an umpire to decide the matter. However, the statement has been issued, however, that all policy holders, by the policy holders' committee, denying the reports and asking that proxies be sent in to oust the present officials from office.

POLICE RAIDS IN NEW YORK CITY AND BLACKMAIL CHARGES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Sensational raids upon alleged pool rooms in which dozens were battered down and furniture ruthlessly smashed, a series of so-called "pink teas," at which keepers of disorderly houses were the guests and the police captain the host, and raids upon a number of large apartment hotels, which took place after the transfer of Police Captain Donley from Coney Island to the command of the Tenderloin district, were followed today by several changes in the personnel of the police in the city's business sections. The members of the hotel raided today declared that money at the rate of $36,000 per month had been collected from 450 places in which the raids took place. The collections, he said, were made by a man not connected with the police force and on behalf of persons unknown.

Order Restored at Moscow.

MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—Order was restored in the streets at 11 o'clock last night. It is officially announced that among the wounded are five Cossacks, four gendarmes and a number of policemen.

Episcopal Clergymen and Prussian Orthodox Ministers to Unite.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 9.—A number of the Episcopal clergy of the diocese of New Hampshire have made preliminary arrangements for the formation of an association which will have for its ultimate object the union of the Anglican church with the orthodox churches of Russia and other nations of the East. The organization is the outgrowth of the thanksgiving service at Christ church at Portsmouth which followed the signing of the peace treaty between Russia and Japan and at which priests of the Episcopal and Russian churches officiated.

The new organization will follow the lines of "The Eastern Church Association" of the Church of England, and will have branches in all dioceses of the Episcopal church in this country, if the plans of the promoters are successful. It is said that within the past half-dozen years the relations between the Russian and Episcopal churches have been growing closer, but until the thanksgiving even-song held at Portsmouth there had been no general participation in one service by both Russian and Episcopal priests.

Range Fire Near Salinas.

SALINAS, Cal., Oct. 7.—News has been received that a conflagration has been raging in San Miguel canyon, a short distance from town. The fire has burned over the Beck, Kirby and other ranches in the Hall school district, Monterey county. Tonight the fire has reached George W. Sills' ranch and a large gang of men is fighting its spread. The damage reaches far into the thousands.

Ranch Fire Near Redding.

REDDING, Cal., Oct. 9.—Fire started today in W. J. B. Martin's place, east of Redding, destroying the warehouse and contents of William Menzel and a great amount of fencing. Tonight the houses of J. N. Logan, Charles Parsons and others in the Pacheco district are in danger.

PRICES CURRENT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—With an active demand from shorts and commission houses, the wheat market was strong the entire day. At the opening the December option was up 1/4¢ to 3/4¢ to 5/4¢ to 5 1/4¢. Apparently the factor of greatest importance was the change in weather conditions Northwest. According to the government bureau, rain had fallen in various localities while at one point in Canada snow was reported. Likelihood of consequent decreased movement made shorts uneasy and caused energetic efforts to cover.

Scarcely less important a factor tending to augment demand here was the advance in the price of wheat at Liverpool, notwithstanding weakness here Saturday. Reiterated reports of shortage in the Russian crop were said to largely account for the strength in the English market. The fact that a leading bull was a moderate buyer created additional sentiment favorable to an advance. Furthermore, cash wheat was in good demand at all the principal centers of the United States.

For the December delivery here the highest point of the day was reached during the last half hour the price touching 80 1/4¢. The market closed 1/4¢ higher or with December at 85 1/4¢.

Rain had a bullish effect on the corn market. December closed strong, 3/4¢ higher at 44 1/4¢.

The oats market was firm. December closed 1/4¢ up at 28 1/4¢.

Trading in provisions was exceedingly dull but the market had a steady undertone. At the close January pork was off 2 1/4¢ and lard and ribs were each a shade lower.

Dried Fruit Market.

Apples are unchanged. Choice 8 1/4¢, extra choice 9 1/4¢ and fancy 10 1/4¢.

Peaches nominal. Futures are sparingly offered at prices high enough to check demand.

Raisins are unchanged on spot, but are said to be unsettled on coast with outside said to be offering below the combination. Loose muscatel are quoted at 5 1/2¢ to 7 1/2¢. Seedling 5 1/4¢ to 7 1/4¢, and London layers at 8 1/4¢ to 11 1/4¢.

QUERY CLUB OPENING.

The President, Mrs. Walthal, Entertained With an Art Social.

The Query club held its first meeting yesterday at the home of the president, Mrs. E. M. Walthal on north K street.

The afternoon was of purely a social nature and some time was devoted to the discussion of the work for the coming winter. Nearly every member was present and there was a marked atmosphere of enthusiasm and eagerness to begin the study for the year.

Vacation days have had a singular bracing effect upon the club women in general and the opening of all the clubs has been with a whole new interest that has inspired the various presidents with much confidence in the work which their particular club is to accomplish.

Mrs. Walthal entertained the members very delightfully yesterday, the method of entertaining being apropos of the art study which the club has been pursuing and will continue this winter. After the first greetings were over each guest was given a drawing of some prominent man—either in statesmanship or in an artistic way and requested to supply the features and marks of character. The result was exceedingly interesting and in many ways showed the careful research which many of the members have given to their art studies.

Another sculpturing effort by the members earned a prize for Mrs. Truman Hart. Some tempting refreshments were served and over the coffee cups club matters were freely discussed.

The Dutch and Flemish masters in art are to furnish the themes for the year's calendar—each hostess in turn to arrange for her special day. With many thanks to the president for her clever and original afternoon the club adjourned to meet for study again next week with Mrs. Walthal.

Officers Installed by Dr. Boyd at Presbyterian Church.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church entertained the city union last night in the church parlors. After the usual business, including committee reports and discussion of plans for the year, the installation of officers took place. Dr. Boyd taking charge of the installation. The officers installed were: President, Tom Russell; vice-president, Hayden Jones; recording secretary, Mr. Piper; corresponding secretary, Harry Kramer; treasurer, J. Mulligan. After the business session refreshments were served in the dining room. A very pleasant sociability concluded the evening.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE

JOHN KARAGIAS, A GREEK, SHOT AS A BURGLAR.

W. E. Crane Fires at Random, But Wounds Running Man in the Thigh.

June 28—D. F. Taylor killed Jacob Bederosian.

August 31—Emmett Higgins killed E. E. Deane.

October 3—T. Nakoyama killed Mrs. E. Sodano.

October 5—Unknown killed Lonie Mong.

October 6—Giles McGee killed Henry Martin.

October 8—W. E. Crane killed John Karagias.

The latest in the series of killings in Fresno in the last few weeks took place about 9 o'clock last Sunday night, when W. E. Crane, a packing house employe and resident on G street, shot John Karagias, a Greek section hand. Crane arose from bed to chase the Greek away from his house, and fired four shots at him, one of which struck the fleeing man in the thigh. He fell gasping for breath, and within 200 feet of his own home, and died at the Burnett sanitarium about three hours afterward.

There is a certain mystery about the affair regarding the reason that Karagias had for being at the house of Crane and his wife, who live at No. 1251 G street, in a small three-roomed cottage. Mrs. Crane says that he was trying to get into the house and that as they had lost things before from theft, she thought he was a burglar. But there is little other evidence to indicate that the man was a burglar, and a well-founded opinion is that the Greek was a "Peeping Tom" who was caught at the game and lost his life because of being taken as a burglar.

Mrs. Crane's Story.

Mrs. Crane's story is that she and her husband retired early on Sunday evening. Their cottage sets but a few feet back from the street, and is surrounded by a picket fence. A couple of steps lead up to the front door, and the bed is to one side of this door and under a window. Some time after retiring, she was partially awakened by a scratching sound against the side of the house, but paid little attention. At what seemed but a little later, she again heard a sound of what she thought was some one attempting to get into the house, and then saw a man's shadow pass the window, through which the moonlight was streaming. There are only lace curtains over the openings.

Mrs. Crane aroused her husband quickly, and he saw the man at the window. Reaching under his wife's pillow, he pulled out his 32 revolver, and got out of bed, unbolted the front door and stepped out.

The man, said Crane, at once started to run away from the window to the south, jumped the fence and ran to the west toward the alley through a vacant lot. Crane fired a shot at the fleeing fellow before he jumped the fence, and another as he was running along the path. The fugitive ran the faster. Crane himself got over the fence, and ran toward the alley firing two more shots in the air. He says that he only shot to frighten and that he had no idea he had hit the man. He ran to the house and after telling his wife of the shots, thought little more of it.

The Wounded Man.

Karagias was probably wounded by the first or second shot, the blood showing where he ran down the path. Reaching the alley, he turned to the north, gaining Merced street, and ran west in the direction of his own home on F street. On the south side of Merced, between the alley and the corner store he fell, bleeding badly, and was soon discovered by a number of people, as it is a very public place. Here he died.

The first officer to arrive at the scene was Policeman Perry, who saw to it that the man was placed upon a cot and removed to the porch of his own place, No. 1251 F street. The coroner had also been sent for, and when Dr. Down arrived, the man was in a very low condition. He had been hit by but one bullet, which entered his right thigh on the inner side a few inches below the hip bone and cut clear through. In its course it had cut the femoral artery and vein, large blood vessels which drain the entire limb. The physician ordered the man removed at once to the sanitarium, where he was treated with salt solutions, but he was too low, and died shortly after midnight.

Karagias' Story.

The wounded man's brother had gone with him to the sanitarium, and talked with him a little. Dr. Cowan stated yesterday that the man refused to make any statement, saying only when he was asked how the shooting occurred that he was "ashamed to say." The man could talk little or no English, and this was what was translated to him by a Greek woman who was there.

Crane's Arrest.

Shortly after the shooting, Chief White, Officers Farnam and Brewster arrived on the scene, and after learning from the neighbors where the shot was fired, went to Crane's house. He was asleep, but arose, and accompanied the officers to the jail, where he spent the night. He told very frankly his story yesterday. Yesterday morning, District Attorney Jones went to the jail and after collecting all the evidence he had, told the sheriff's office that the man might be released until after the inquest, as there appeared to be no reason for putting him under bonds.

The Burglary Theory.

The Crane say they have been missing things for some time, spoons and articles of clothing hung out to wash. Mrs. Crane says that she thought she recognized Karagias from having seen him prowl around the house on a previous night. Some of the neighbors have also been missing things.

The coroner, in searching the body of the wounded man, found a fine work handkerchief, which was thought might have been stolen, but there is nothing to show it. Yesterday the police made a search of Karagias' cottage but found nothing that appeared to be stolen.

The Greek Brothers.

John and George Karagias, aged 23 and 21 years, respectively, have been known as industrious, frugal young fellows, who kept steadily at work as section hands on the railroad. A short time ago, they bought several lots on the west side of F street for $1300, paying $700 down. The lots contain two houses, one little more than a cabin, where the brothers lived, and the other much larger, which they rented. The neighbors have had nothing against them.

W. E. Crane is well spoken of by many people. Formerly a laundryman, he has been working of late for the Pacific Coast Seeded Raisin company.

BOYCOTT IN CHINA
TEMPORARILY LIFTED
UNTIL CONGRESS ACTS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—News that the merchants of China who have been protesting the boycott against American goods have decided to temporarily suspend the boycott until the United States congress in session at the exclusion laws, is contained in official dispatches received today from Peking. The information comes from the merchants' guild of that place and is to the effect that this course has been decided upon by merchants through out the empire. The action follows the advice of the Chinese government in the matter, which was given as a consequence of the attitude of President Roosevelt. Should congress fail to take the desired action the boycott will again become effective and will be pressed with renewed vigor.

$10 for a Suit Like This

Notice the correct lines; the swell appearance; the "go" to this suit.

It is made of a good quality of cheviot; the overplaid and indistinct checked patterns.

It has a long, wide lapel; the deep vent in the back; hand-padded collar; interlined breast; a coat that won't get shapeless, that won't sag or break; the shoulders squared away; the linings good until the suit is cast aside.

The trousers are perfect in outline and fit.

We are very proud of these $10 suits. We planned them; had the materials tested before they were made; we know the suit is a trade-builder.

Can we not have the pleasure of showing you one this week?

Wool Underwear $1

There is some of it in one of the Mariposa street windows. Made by the famous Glasterbury mills; clean, soft finished, sanitary wool; silk fronts in the shirt and drawers.

KENNEY WILL REMAIN

AS PASTOR IN FRESNO FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

South Methodist Appointments Made by Bishop Morrison as Conference Closes.

St. Paul's M. E. church South of this city is to continue to have Rev. J. J. Kenney as its pastor for the coming year, and Rev. J. E. Moore will still be presiding elder of this district, with residence in Fresno. These are the most important announcements included in the appointments given out by Bishop Morrison in adjourning the Pacific conference yesterday morning.

This is Rev. Kenney's second pastorate in Fresno, he having preached to the South Methodists here twenty years ago. Three years ago he was again assigned to this station by the bishop, an appointment that met with universal rejoicing in the local church. The rules of the South Methodist church limit a minister's successive service in one place to four annual assignments. Rev. Kenney has but one year more here, but it was fully expected that he would be assigned here for that period. His power and influence as a preacher and his ability as an administrator have made him both loved and valued by the members of St. Paul's, who would be very sorry to lose him before they had to.

Rev. J. A. Moore, during his year's residence here as presiding elder has won a host of friends who are glad to see him remain.

Rev. J. A. Bachelor, for several years pastor of the Fresno church, has been continued as presiding elder of the San Francisco district.

New pastors in this county are as follows: A. Addison comes to Big Dry Creek from Snelling; A. L. Paul comes to Selma from Madera; Sanger is to be supplied by M. A. Morrison.

No pastor has as yet been supplied to Kingsburg.

The following appointments for the three districts in the annual conference are as follows:

Fresno, J. J. Kenney; Clovis, A. Odom; Big Dry Creek, A. Addison; Selma, A. L. Paul; Sanger, supplied by M. A. Morrison; Kingsburg and Fowler, supplied by J. E. Moore; Bakersfield, Lemoore, D. C. Beaver; Madera, C. C. Black; Merced, T. J. Needham.

THE POLICE COURT

GAMBLERS DEMUR TO COMPLAINTS AGAINST THEM.

Patriotic Fervor of a Colored Brother Squelched—Bicycle Thief Brought From Clovis.

The main order of business in the police court yesterday afternoon was the handling of the men arrested on charges of gambling Saturday night. They had been released from jail on Sunday, and thronged up the steps of the old city hall in bunches, Chinese, Japs and whites in one brotherhood of chance and consequent difficulty.

S. C. St. John had been retained as attorney for the twenty-two taken in the raid of the fan-tan game, and W. D. Foote came for the Simpson bunch of poker players. Both attorneys demurred to the complaints against their clients which had been drawn up under the city ordinance, which they contended was a repetition of a state law. This play for time was allowed, and the argument was assigned for hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Briggs stated last evening that the matter possibly might have to go over again, as he has a jury trial set for 2 o'clock. This is the case against Quong Yung, one of the lottery agents. Ex-Police Sergeant Simpson was released Sunday on $500 cash bail. His cousin, J. P. Simpson, together with Perry Hart, H. W. Hammer and a Chinese gambler were released on $1000 bail furnished by Lee Sack Sam and Lee Toy, Chinese gamblers and merchants.

He favored the Bonds. Yesterday saw the release of a poor victim of a man's emotion in the person of Ed Copeland. Copeland is a man of color and also of civic pride, and when on Saturday he had imbibed a quantity of aqua vina he stationed himself in front of the city hall to make a speech for the bonds.

"Hurrah for the bonds," yelled Copeland, and waved his hat at the passers by. "Dis am do fines" city in de kentry."

"Right you are," put in Captain Broad.

"Hurrah for Fresno," vociferated the colored promoter. "We'll carry those bonds suah."

"How much is Parker Lyon paying you?" asked the feeling Blakeley from across the street. "I'd like to get in on it myself."

Officer Henry Russell ordered Copeland away, and when he would not go he haled him into the police court. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace, and assured every one that he would come out of his troubles victorious. J. A. Nindlin, he changed his mind and was given a chance to reform.

Getting on the Grass.

Park Keeper Henderson has been having much trouble keeping wanderers off the women's side of the court house park. Yesterday he stopped a gypsy woman from telling fortunes there and arrested Simon Cropley and Miles A. Knapp. The gypsies are a particular pest just now.

Bicycle Thief From Clovis. Constable Clifford brought in James H. Prevett from Clovis Sunday. He is a young fellow, charged with grand larceny for having stolen a bicycle. Clifford also brought in Chris Mitchell to serve thirty days for disturbing the peace.

Other Matters.

George Williams, caught burglarizing at the corner of L and Fresno streets Saturday night, pleaded not guilty yesterday and his preliminary examination was set for Friday, the 13th.

A number of smaller cases, mostly drunks and vagrants, were disposed of.

Birthday Party in Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blakey gave a party last Saturday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of their little daughter, Miss Bessie E. Woods. The little ones had a most enjoyable time. The evening was spent in games and music, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Blanche Mitchell, Katherine Segars, Vera Estey, Eva Nicholson, Mary Bartgis, Hazel Reynolds, Bessie Woods, Mrs. Carl Smith, Fred Wren, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. E. A. Dymott, Mrs. Naamah Z. Blakey, John Maddux. The little miss received many gifts from her friends and relatives.

HEALTH CONDITIONS

A MILD EPIDEMIC OF GRIP AND SCARLET FEVER.

Plumbing Inspector Reports on the Sanitary Condition of City Churches—Meat and Milk.

Dr. Hayden, city health officer, reported last night to the Board of Health a mild epidemic of la grippe and a number of cases of scarlet fever of a mild type. Dairies and butcher shops were reported in good condition.

The Board of Health met last night in Dr. Hayden's office at 7 o'clock and decided that hereafter a member of the board will aid the health officer in collecting samples of milk from the dairymen for Dr. Hely, the city bacteriologist, to examine. For the first month Dr. Long will do that work. There was no report on the bacteriological count for the last month because Dr. Hayden had been busy the days he expected to collect the milk. Aside from action on that one matter nothing was done last night aside from the reading of the reports.

Health Officer's Report.

The body of the report of Dr. T. M. Hayden follows: "I herewith submit my report for the preceding month, as follows. The health of the city has been very good with the exception of a mild epidemic of la grippe, also a number of cases of scarlet fever, likewise of a mild type, which latter we hope, with the hearty co-operation of the people, to stamp out before it becomes anything formidable. And the people very cordial in their support of the health authorities in these matters of quarantine, although they at times feel very keenly the somewhat onerous stringency of the health rules. And I wish to at this time express our appreciation of this action on the part of the general public.

There occurred in the city a total of thirty-two births, of which number 16 were males and 16 were females—all whites. What our colored and brown population is doing does not appear in the health office, for some reason to me unknown; at least, not in the birth records, although the yellow and brown peoples contribute to the mortality report a goodly quota. But the blacks seem to be an unknown quantity both in the birth and death reports.

"There were no deaths for record during the same month a total of 22 deaths—a decided improvement over the preceding month. Of this number 12 were females and 10 were males. As to color all were white, but two of the Mongolian race. As usual the causes of death were almost as numerous as the deaths themselves, and were as follows: Auto-infection 1, purpura 1, organic heart disease 2, Bright's disease 1, meningitis 1, typhoid fever 3, gastro enteritis 2, accidental 3, stillborn 1, asthma 1, marasmus 1, pneumonia 1, edema of the lungs 1, cerebral hemorrhage 1, inanition 1, and tuberculosis 1.

Dairies. "I have done a usual inspection of dairies and find them in good condition with one exception and this exception is one that I noted in my last report to your body. The owner wants to do the right thing but does not know how. Cases like his make me feel like recommending to this board that it restrict the number of cows in each dairy to say, 20 cows, for the reason that no man on earth can run a larger dairy than 20 and get the best results from a sanitary point of view or from a financial aspect. Large dairies pay no dividends to stockholders, and small dairies, properly managed, make money for their owners and give the public the best product.

"So far as I have investigated, the butcher shops are in good condition and I have tried to visit them all. I have no doubt that preservatives are used to a limited amount, but not to an alarming degree. Indeed, there are some products of the shops that can hardly be kept at all without the aid of some preservative, as, for instance, the Hamburgers sold at some of the sausage. If people would shun these miserable articles of food then the butchers would have no excuse for the use of preservatives."

Machen's Doings.

The report of the sanitary inspector was as follows: "During the month I covered the entire city and used my best efforts to improve the sanitary conditions. Many complaints have been made of the sewage in the southern part of the city, which is in a most terrible condition owing to the system being overworked and too small to carry away the great amount of water that is now being turned into the sewer. We often find the sewage backs up, and floods the streets and alleys, thus making a serious state of affairs.

"I notified the general superintendent's office of the Santa Fe to fix their sewage pipes under the turn-table so that the pit would not fill up from the sewer. The same has been attended to and is in good condition at this time. During the month I caused the arrest of six persons for failing to comply with the regulations of the Board of Health.

"Seventeen sewer jobs were ordered made in the various parts of the city."

Inspection of Church Plumbing.

Plumbing Inspector Ellithorp, acting upon instructions, investigated the plumbing of the church buildings and made his report to the board. He stated that in some the plumbing was "very good" and in others "very bad." The following churches he reported have no plumbing: North Side Christian, United Presbyterian, Swedish (Corner of O and Silvia), St. James' Episcopal, German Lutheran, First Armenian, Trinity, Armenian, Zion, Congregational, Christ's (138 F St.), Second Baptist.

The following defects were noted: First M. E. one wash stand not ventilated; waste pipe runs thirteen feet and connects with main soil pipe. First Christian—Toilet, and two wash stands and baptistry taps not ventilated; one toilet with 1 1/2-inch vent where 4-inch is required. Adventist—Toilet not properly ventilated, and hole in trap admits gas to room; part of the sheet iron instead of cast iron. The trustees promised to remedy matters at once. Catholic—waste pipe from wash stand defective, water dripping on the floor. Baptist—one wash stand not ventilated and overflow from baptistry connects direct to sewer with no trap or vent. The work of remedying these defects has already been let.

The inspector also reported the approval of thirty-six plans during the month. There were fourteen sewer permits, eleven sewer inspections and thirty-six plumbing inspections.

October Helpfulness

More helpful suggestions this morning.

The entire store force is devoting its time and energy and ability towards making this the banner October of years.

Business is booming; the crowds that through the store create marked comment.

We are serving more people; serving them better; doing more for them; saving them more money.

Four leaves of fine bread now 10c. What is the use of bothering about baking? Let us help you.

A group of $7.50 hats. Note the extreme beauty of their style—they match the $10 and $12 hats sold anywhere else.

The secret of our millinery popularity lies in the style, beauty, service and lower prices we accord our patrons.

We might sell every woman in Fresno county a new hat for one season and then make a failure the next.

If we didn't please the great majority we would make as lamentable a failure as the store that tries for twenty-five years to do a successful millinery business and fails.

The magnetic power of beautiful millinery and lower prices is here in greater force than ever.

We are doing the largest millinery business in the history of this store; serving more people, earning more praise; steadily forging ahead.

Ours is the only millinery store in Fresno displaying absolutely exclusive styles, in hand-made millinery, and asking fully a third less for them.

Exclusiveness a Big Feature of the Women's Garments We Sell

And it is the chief feature in the purchase of a fine suit, coat or skirt.

It is just as a vivacious little woman remarked last Saturday, when making a purchase. "Well," said she, "I am glad I have found one store that doesn't show a dozen suits made just exactly alike. I have been in three or four stores and every time I saw so many that were identically the same that I wouldn't make a purchase."

Who wants to wear a suit that is like the one some one else is wearing? She was right; who indeed, wants to wear the duplicate of some one else's garment?

Young Ladies' Shoes $2

For school girls and misses; slightly and durable footwear; made with the sensible school heels; uppers of fine kid, extension soles; patent leather tips; shoes worth up to $2.75 selling for $2; sizes 2 1/2 to 6.

Boy's Suits $2.50

New arrivals; made of good woolens; in new patterns; shades of brown, gray and blue; double-breasted coats; knee trousers; coats have the long lapel; the deep vent; the right cut; ages 8 to 14 years.

Flannel Gowns $1.25

All new arrivals.

Made of the Teazledown flannel; soft and fluffy; wide collar; self-trimmed; pretty pinks and blues; some in figured designs; values up to $1.75.

25c Hosiery 15c

Full regular; that means that the seams have been connected by hand knitting; you don't find that in poor hosiery; seamless, fast black; an excellent special.

Frock Coat Suits, $37.50

They are really $50 values; 52 inch frock suits; the swiftest shown in Fresno; made of imported broadcloth in chiffon weight; black, navy blue or light gray mixtures; lined to the waist with taffeta silk; box plaited skirt.

Elegant Suits at $22.50

They can not be duplicated under $30 in any other Fresno store.

27 inch fitted coat suits; made of rich mixed gray or brown suitings; or in plain navy blue or black Panama chevrons; infant velvet collars and cuffs; stitched and strapped.

THE FRATERNITIES

FRATERNAL "GESE" AND "CHICKENS" SCRATCHING HARD.

Mrs. C. C. Van Valkenberg Will Represent Raisina Chapter, O. E. S., at Grand Chapter.

Fresno lodge, Fraternal Brotherhood, held a meeting at its meeting place last night. The "Geese" are ahead in attendance at last report, although the "chickens" were strictly in evidence last night. The membership contest is progressing famously, there being seven applications received last night. The secretary's chair was declared vacant and Mrs. Annie Brown was elected to fill the vacancy. An initiation was received by the lodge to the Grand Chapter of Friday.

Fraternal Brotherhood day. There will be a basket dinner prepared for the celebration of the lodge's anniversary. The Fresno lodge is planning to go to and join in the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle were visitors from West Park. Brother Roberts and Sister Brooks from Raisina Chapter were also present. A big initiation and a taffy pull to be anticipated.

Eastern Star.

Raisina chapter, O. E. S., was entertained last night by speeches from L. O. Stephens and C. C. Pierce. W. S. White was a Portland visitor to the lodge. There will be an election of officers at the next meeting. The lodge is planning to go to and join in the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle were visitors from West Park. Brother Roberts and Sister Brooks from Raisina Chapter were also present. A big initiation and a taffy pull to be anticipated.

Maccabees.

Fresno team, Knights of the Maccabees, reorganized the degree team at the meeting last night and elected J. W. Southwick captain of the team. It is the purpose of the captain to hold regular meetings of the team to perfect it in the degree work. A promotional committee was appointed to engage in a systematic campaign for the upbuilding of the team. This committee is to work in conjunction with the Organizer, C. B. Langhlin, who recently paid a visit to the lodge. On the committee are C. W. Ogilvie, J. W. Southwick, O. M. Lambert, C. E. Elmore, O. P. Guthrie. Three applications for membership were received.

Florian Institute.

Florian Institute assembled last night in Knights of Columbus hall for a large and enthusiastic session. Since vacation time is past each meeting night welcomes more members and the institute shows a flourishing condition. Just now the members are showing particular interest in preparing ations for a social in two weeks. There will be an excellent entertainment including dancing and refreshments. The proceeds from this will go toward supplying the needy. The only land, a fancy booth at St. John's fair to be given for the benefit of the Catholic church in the near future. A week meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Harry Fredericks, to complete arrangements for the social.

Odd Fellows.

Fresno lodge, I. O. O. F., was well attended last night. Work in the first degree was given to R. R. Harris and T. R. O'Brien. On the last meeting night of this month the lodge expects to open the new hall on the corner of 1st and Merced streets with a special banquet. There were four visitors last night.

Eagles.

Fresno Aerie of Eagles initiated Clarence Barton and W. E. Jordan last night with the usual elaborate ceremonies. L. W. Haverford of Bakersfield was a visitor. Next week there will be a big initiation followed by a spread.

Fresno County Atlases Now on Sale.

The Thousand Atlas of Fresno county has for a long time been out of print. Within a few days, however, I have secured a mislaid case of these valuable books which I now have on sale. ## THROUGH AT LAST

MUCH DISPUTED PLUMBING ORDINANCE IS PASSED.

City Fathers Will Not Open Amador Street—Shaw Wants to Revoke Somner's License.

The city trustees held a lengthy session last night, closing at midnight. Most of the night was spent in working over disputed portions of the plumbing ordinance with the members of the Board of Health. Of the disputed portions the trustees decided to differ permanently with the health men in regard to two points. One was that sewer piping under houses may be either tiled or iron unless the houses are big or heavy. The fee system was cut out. A number of important matters came up during the evening.

Fixed at $50.

The much disputed meat peddlers' license question was settled in executive session. When the trustees came in the clerk read a petition signed by 300 or 400 patrons of the peddlers asking that the license on wagons be fixed at $15 a quarter. The petition was read and filed.

Don't Like Big Current.

The following petition was read: "We, the undersigned property owners on Fresno street, hereby object to the San Joaquin Power and Light Company's placing poles on the above mentioned street, on which they intend to run their high potential wires carrying 30,000 volts. We deem that carrying extremely dangerous to our property, and hereby request that said company be restricted from running their lead along said street. Signed: R. D. Chittenden, Burnett Sanitarium, H. P. Heck, Edward Bullock, J. B. Bostick, Alice J. McKie, J. O. Turner." This was referred to the city attorney to advise the trustees as to what rights the city has in the matter. Mr. Ewing stated it depended altogether upon the reading of the franchise.

Will Not Open Street.

J. A. Melvin, Frank Laming and twenty other citizens petitioned the trustees to use either branch street or the Southern Pacific reservation, alleging that "this would be a great benefit to the residents of this part of the city and the people on the White's bridge road and the various avenues leading west from the city. It would also open up direct communication from Blackstone avenue and the Clovis country with the city. We would also call attention to the fact that the city has a very little switching or making of trains is done in the vicinity of Amador street, thereby making a safe crossing at all times." Trustee Collins moved to treat in the same way as Calaveras and Stanislaus streets.

The mayor objected. He said this thing could be run into the ground. He said he would prevent the Southern Pacific's moving its yard to the north, as he had heard the road was seriously thinking of doing.

"I live on San Joaquin street, and am asking to have it opened, and hope for the moment that the switching will come up that way, that it will damage my property. Some people are hard to understand. One who lives near the proposed Stanislaus crossing is asking around town that Trustee Myers is a man who is on the board because he is the only one to oppose opening those streets."

"He isn't the brightest, either," said Stanislaus and Myers laughed as much as the rest.

The motion to include Amador street was lost on a tie vote, Collins, Kiesker, Shaw and Falkenstein voting for and the others against.

W. H. McKenzie and S. J. Reynolds asked to be relieved from the application of the fire escape regulations to the building on the ground that they are installing a new elevator and after November 1st it is to be exclusively an office building.

William Toomey spoke for the property holders of the Forthcamp avenue building, which is being erected, who have objected to the acceptance of the sidewalk work there. A. L. Drew, attorney for the contractor, met with Metzler, who said that the contractor was not interested in the matter and was not present. Toomey said that the property holders are tired of having the matter drag along.

Attorney Ewing explained the situation. He said that the contractor, J. B. Knobloch, who set the contract to Metzler, "who pretended to do the work. Between the city and Metzler, who pretended to do the work, the city is in a bad position. Metzler has no right because Knobloch has no contract and sublet it. I don't see how the board can take cognizance of Metzler's and Drew's positions. If the city is to put the sidewalk in, I don't think it should accept. At the present time neither Knobloch or Metzler can collect from the property holders. The contractor is not interested in the matter and is not present. Toomey said that the property holders are tired of having the matter drag along.

City Lighting.

The San Joaquin Light and Power company had in a bid offering to furnish the city with 100 incandescent lamps for $6 each; also 100 incandescent lights for 60 cents or $1.20 each for 16 and 32 candle power. The company is to renew lamps and all material.

The committee on water and light was given further time to confer with the light company concerning the matter.

At this point reference was made to the sewer bonds and the mayor remarked: "I want to inquire into the validity of the Vrooman act of 1912 and find out why it can't be used should the sewer bonds be turned down. The people may have the choice of paying for the sewer by bonds in forty years or under the Vrooman act in one year."

Other Matters.

The reports of the Police and Fire Commission for the last three months were placed on file.

Four bonds of $625 each, held by the Savings and Loan Society, were ordered sold.

The bonds were issued on August 1, 1918, and were for school grounds and houses.

Rev. W. J. Call of the Free Methodist church was given permission to erect tent for revival services on the corner of 1st and Merced streets.

"I'm too old, too fat, too poor, to pay $30 a year license," said H. Avakian, the peanut vendor who hangs out at the corner of 1st and Merced streets. He wanted to be let off from paying a license. The trustees could not see that he was required to pay the peddlers' license. The matter was referred to the collector.

Begin on Ordinance.

The Board of Health members were given copies of the disputed plumbing ordinance and together with them the trustees went to work on the points at issue.

During the discussion the mayor got several chances to vote. Plumbing Inspector Ellithorne had a number of pieces of piping with him as examples. The health men objected to using the double hub joint and they wanted it put in the ordinance that its use be made prohibitory. On a vote Trustee Kiesker, Shaw, Anderson and Sunderland voted for the double hub to be used and Trustee Collins, Myers, Statham and Falkenstein voted no. The mayor voted with the last four and the health board won its point.

Another point at issue was whether or not all pieces of sewer under houses should be of tiling or iron pipe. The health men said iron pipe should be used because tiling breaks and gas escapes from the joints. Dr. Burks said any tiling sewer pipe under a house is unsanitary because the gas comes up. Shaw objected to the expense. Dr. Long said the matter was a question of a little expense against a sanitary condition. Sunderland said the health men want the iron pipe under chicken houses. This was not the idea of the Board of Health and the word-house in the ordinance was changed to dwelling. Sunderland moved that the ordinance provision apply only to brick and buildings of two stories or more. This motion was lost by the vote of Mayor Lyon. Then came a vote on whether or not the iron pipe should be used under all dwellings hereafter built. Falkenstein, Myers, Kiesker and Collins voted for the provision, and Statham, Shaw, Anderson and Sunderland voted against. Once more the mayor stood with the sanitary champions and the provision was carried.

The fee system was knocked out. The Board of Health had put in a provision making fees from $150 to $250 according to the number of fixtures. The fees were voted out by Trustees Sunderland, Anderson, Collins and Shaw. Myers and Kiesker voted for them.

Board Backs Up.

The motion was then made that the whole ordinance be passed without printing. Collins, Myers, Statham and Falkenstein voted for the ordinance and Kiesker, Shaw, Anderson and Sunderland voted against it. The motion to pass without printing requires a unanimous vote.

"Why are you against the ordinance?" asked the mayor.

"Simply because the whole ordinance is made in the interests of the master plumbers and the taxpayers will have to stand it," said Shaw.

Anderson said he objected to it because as it is Fresno pays more for plumbing in its buildings than any town on the Pacific coast, and I can prove it," said Anderson.

The iron pipe under the buildings is what brought the ordinance against it. To get the ordinance through Mayor Lyon changed his vote so that iron pipe must be used only on two-story and brick houses. One-story frame buildings may use all other material. When the motion to adopt the ordinance was put all voted aye but Myers. Rather than put the city to the expense of publication of the ordinance he changed his vote.

Director of Sewer.

The mayor announced that he had received a telegram from Dr. N. K. Foster, secretary of the State Board of Health, saying that he would be in Fresno on Thursday night and would be willing to talk sewer bonds and sewer plans. The mayor said he had called a special meeting of those interested in the bonds for that night and he asked the trustees to be present.

The mayor announced that he had written a letter to the city Board of Health in regard to the position of plumbing inspector, who had expressed dissatisfaction with his job. Ellithorne had agreed to take the position at the $100 salary and the mayor advised that he be retained, although he had been somewhat hasty in his words at the time of his appointment.

Trustee Shaw said that since no action had been taken against the man who was driving the team and ran over and killed Miss Ivy Seelner it was up to the trustees to do something. "I think we would be justified in revoking the license of the Commercial Transfer Co.," said Shaw. "When there is a do something on the street it is high time to do something. I don't want to hear much complaint against the driver and company, particularly against the proprietor, Soumer, who is reckless of human life."

The mayor said that he thought it was up to the relatives of the deceased girl to swear to a complaint if they want the driver who ran over her arrested.

"The people of the city are to blame. The ordinances concerning fast driving were not enforced. There are plenty of automobilists that ought to be arrested every fifteen minutes," said Sunderland.

"If the police would put in more time enforcing such ordinances instead of raiding Chinese that are doing no harm, the city would be better off," said Myers. "I have heard that Sommer of the street car line did not have a man drive for him who drove slowly."

Mayor Lyon read the fast driving ordinance which in some ways seemed absurd. He said that the city is limited to eight miles an hour which is not desirable, it was said. In the residence districts. On Sunderland's motion the ordinance went to the ordinance committee for revision.

YOM KIPPER OBSERVED.

Solemn Festival of the Jewish Holiday Passed.

Yesterday was the festival of Yom Kipper, the Jewish Day of Atonement. From sundown on Sunday to sundown yesterday those strict in the faith neither ate nor drank but passed the time in prayer.

The formal observance took place in the lower hall of the Donohoe-Emmons building where three services occurred. Sunday evening, yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon. The music was in charge of Mrs. C. M. Burleigh. The services were largely attended.

Salt Lake spoke up for the subject: "Atonement," Mr. Burleigh and Mrs. Cashin sang "Over the Stars There Rest," by Abt, and Mrs. Burleigh sang "Babylon," by Watson, with accompaniment by Miss McDougal. The ritual service, "Kol Nidro," was sung.

Yesterday morning's services included a sermon by "Denial" and a vocal solo by Mrs. Cashin. "A Prayer" by Luzzi. There was prayer service both morning and afternoon. The songs were "Hark, My Soul," by Shelley, and "Fear Not Ye, O Israel," by Dudley Buck.

BRAKEMAN GOES INSANE.

Says He Is Hunting for Son That Is Dead.

George Brownning, a Southern Pacific brakeman well known among those in the service, went insane last evening and was found wandering about in the suburbs. He was sent to his home in Oakland on the Owl this morning.

Brownning lost a little son, a cripple, about three months ago, and though he has two other children, cared particularly for the dead one. He arrived in town yesterday afternoon by No. 84 train and lay over to return north as one of the crew on the Owl this morning. He seems to have lost his mind late in the evening, and about 11 o'clock a telephone message reached police headquarters that a madman was wandering about frightening people.

Officer Brewbaker went out on the call and easily brought the man to the insane ward at the jail.

Brownning declared he would hunt until he found his little George, and that he was not in Fresno. Dr. J. L. Maul was called and questioned the man with a preliminary examination.

The company officials arranged to send Brownning to his home in Oakland, this morning accompanied by an officer.

OAKLAND SHUT OUT

FRESNO WON SUNDAY'S GAME BY SINGLE RUN.

Exhibition of the Game.

It Was a Pitchers' Battle and a Fine

Only one man got a round trip ticket in Sunday's game between Fresno and Oakland, and that man was Moore of Fresno. The score of 1 to 0 tells the story of a game as played this season. The long run was made in the seventh inning. Fresno didn't open propitiously—Kuhn flew out and O'Brien fanned. Then Moore raised hopes with a two-sack swat. Captain Adams, assisted by Halloran at short, did the rest. The captain reeled off his willow a sizzler that burned the ground. Halloran short circuited it all right, but put it wild to first. Of course Moore's ticket was good then for the rest of the journey. There was rejoicing among the fans. The fun was over when Walthour, after a sensational run, gathered in a high one by Clynes.

Neither side scored after this, although Oakland made a heroic effort to even matters in the two remaining innings.

It was largely a battle of the slabs. O'Brien struck out twelve men, and Tyson swung I. O. O. F. outplayed Oakland throughout the game, although both teams put up the kind of ball the people want.

AT THE GRAND.

An Excellent Bill Is On For This Week.

The unanimous opinion of the immense crowds that attend the Grand theater last night was that the new bill was every respect the superior of any that has been staged at that popular little play house in a long time. It was absolutely a new bill, a new bill to end, and no one who appreciates good performance could help being thoroughly entertained. The cast was personally selected by Manager Dwyer, and that he knows what he wants when he goes out to find a bunch of entertainers was proved by the magnificent performance put up by the new talent last night.

One of the most attractive features was the Royal Hawaiian Quartet. In the opinion of everyone that heard them last night, their singing was well worth double the price of admission. The peculiar charm of the Hawaiian singing can be brought out only by a native, and everyone should take this opportunity of hearing it at its best.

Another number that was greatly enjoyed was the performance of Louis Laurence, the world's greatest trumpeter. Beginning with "Reveille" he went through the entire list of bugle calls used in the United States cavalry. He is certainly a wonder with a trumpet and well worth hearing.

The performance of Miss Helene, the juvenile soubrette, drew a hearty round of applause. She is really a very clever child and some of the older members of the same audience could easily learn something of the art of entertaining from her.

The entertainment was concluded by a new and highly entertaining series of moving pictures on the Grand stage. When the new Novelty theater is opened the Grand will continue to run as usual. Both of the houses will be under the same management and shows of equal worth will be staged at each. Some great features are billed for the Grand next week and will be announced later in the week.
